

Black^{AND} Gold

FOREWORD

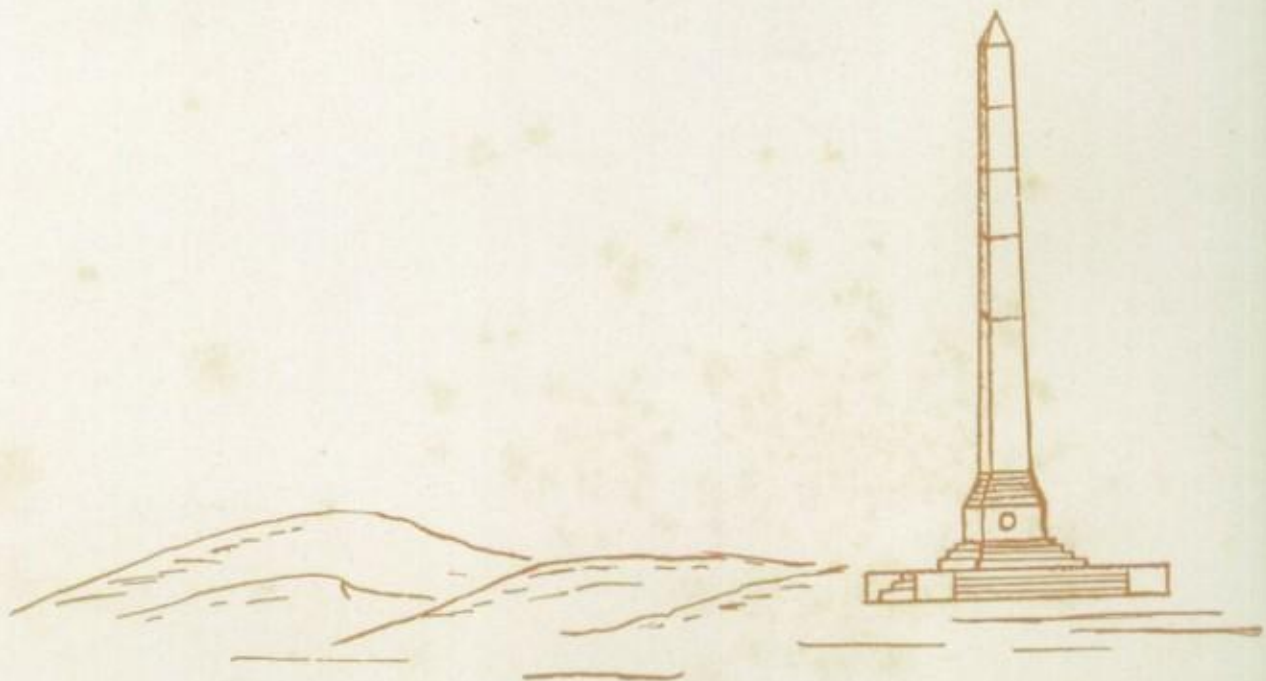

The memory is a record of events—the joys and sorrows in the life of an individual. It is our wish to make the Black and Gold a written record of the events of the School and, as the memory brings back many happy thoughts, so can this book be opened in future years to recall the happy events which have transpired throughout our school career, and particularly throughout this, our last year in Perrysburg High School. Though the years may dim the luster of youth, though life's experiences carry us to the ends of the earth, may the pages of this volume ever brighten the pleasant memories of this delightful year and ever keep fresh the cherished ideals of P. H. S. If this is accomplished, we will feel that our efforts have not been in vain.

DEDICATION

To the High School Faculty—who have been more than instructors acting as scholars, teachers and friends—we, the Senior Class of 1930 do earnestly and respectfully dedicate this volume of the Black and Gold.

History of the Maumee Valley

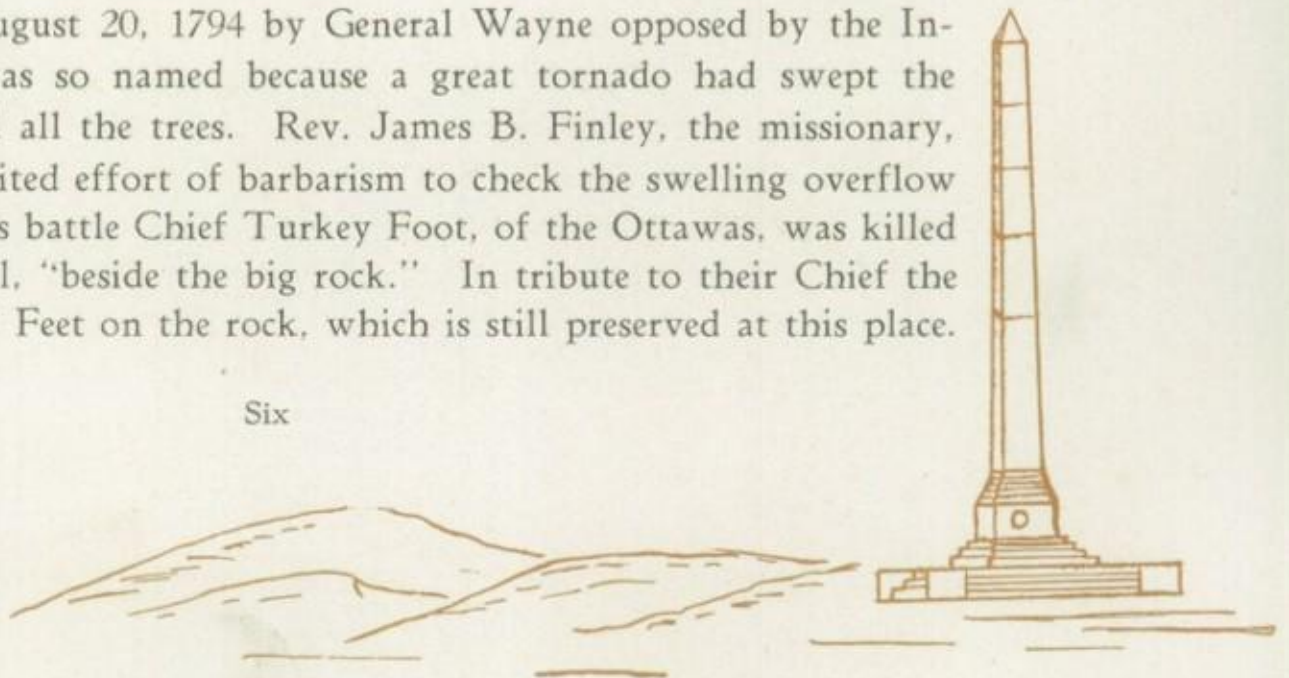

The Maumee River is one hundred and fifty miles in length. Along its shores have been fought many decisive battles during the various wars of our country. Most of the early fighting with the Indians during the Revolution, centered in this valley while later activities on this river were of great importance to the future of the Northwest Territory.

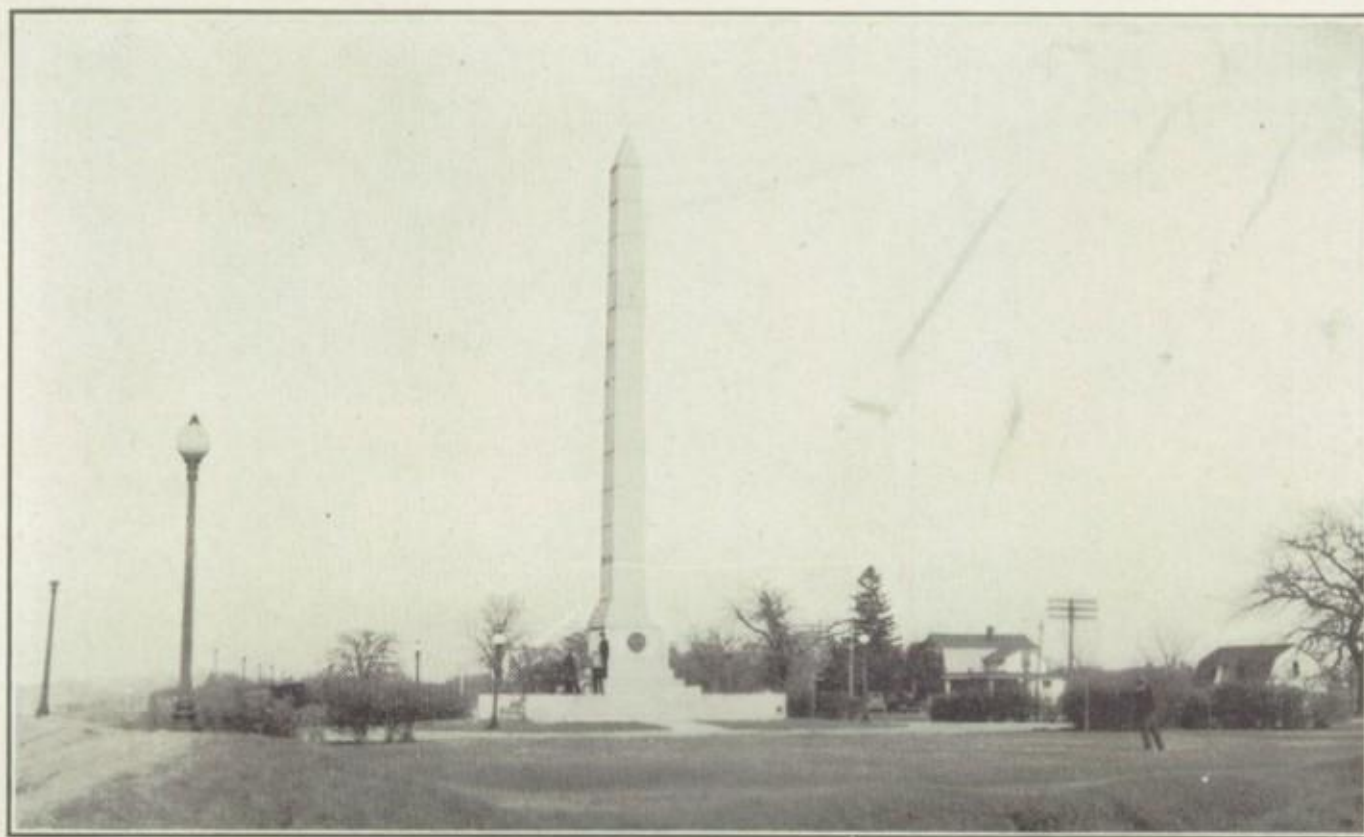

The credit for the discovery of this historic river is due the Frenchman, Louis de Fontenac. In 1679 he piloted his boat up what was then known as "The Miami of the Lake" and explored the region. In 1680 he established the Miami Trading Post.

During the next one hundred and fourteen years a number of forts were built along the Maumee which were destined to become great industrial cities in the future.

The year 1794 is famous for a number of reasons. The Battle of Fallen Timbers was fought August 20, 1794 by General Wayne opposed by the Indians. This ground was so named because a great tornado had swept the country and annihilated all the trees. Rev. James B. Finley, the missionary, says "It was the last united effort of barbarism to check the swelling overflow of civilization." In this battle Chief Turkey Foot, of the Ottawas, was killed and buried where he fell, "beside the big rock." In tribute to their Chief the Indians carved Turkeys' Feet on the rock, which is still preserved at this place.

Fort Industry (now Toledo) was built as a stockade by General Wayne, in August, 1794.

Fort Miami, a trading post since 1680, was rebuilt as a fort in the same year. It was at this place that the famous Treaty of Greenville, making Ohio a part of the Northwest Territory, was signed August 3, 1795.

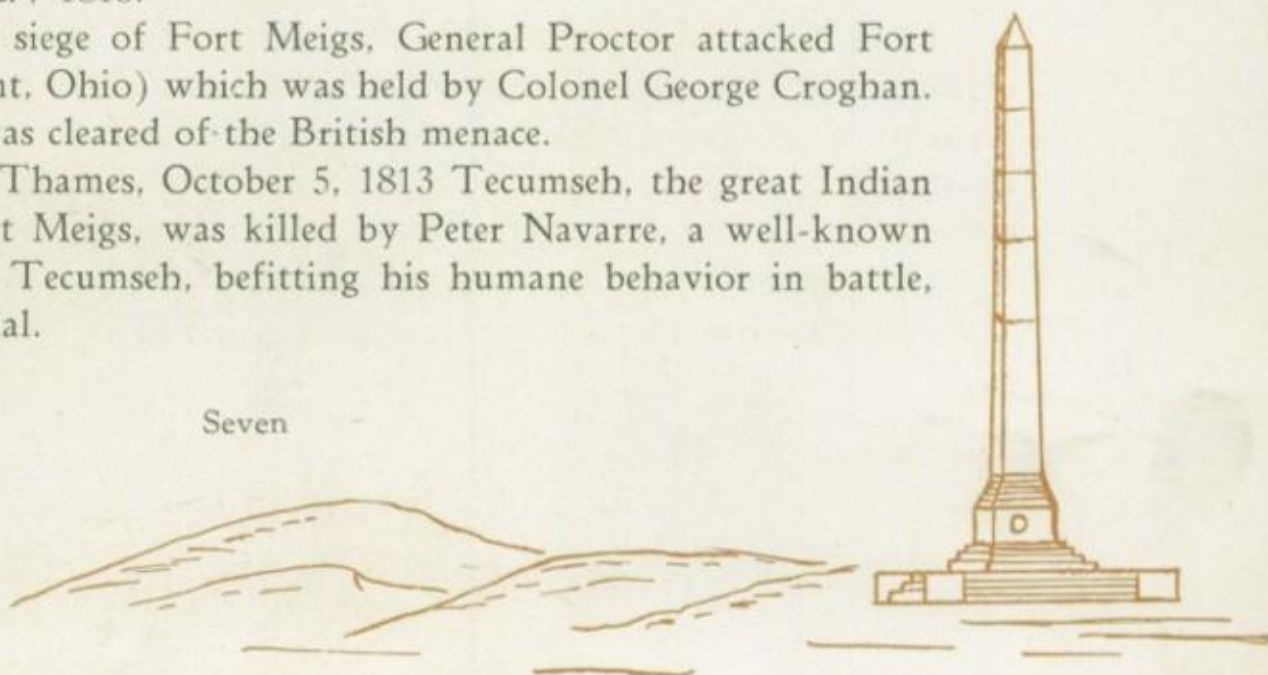

In 1803 Ohio was admitted to the Union. When the War of 1812 broke out the Maumee Valley was the scene of a number of important battles.

General William Henry Harrison, commander-in-chief of the Army of the Northwest Territory, began the construction of Fort Meigs February 2, and completed it February 16, 1813. It covered about nine acres of land. The British commanded by General Proctor, were stationed directly across the river, while Tecumseh had his Indians scattered on both sides of the river. The first siege began May 1, and ended May 11. Colonel Dudley and 650 of his men were horribly slaughtered in "The Dudley Defeat." The second siege began July 20, and ended July 27, 1813.

After giving up the siege of Fort Meigs, General Proctor attacked Fort Stephenson (now Fremont, Ohio) which was held by Colonel George Croghan. On August 2, Fremont was cleared of the British menace.

In the Battle of the Thames, October 5, 1813 Tecumseh, the great Indian Chief at the siege of Fort Meigs, was killed by Peter Navarre, a well-known pioneer of this district. Tecumseh, befitting his humane behavior in battle, was given a civilized burial.

Seven

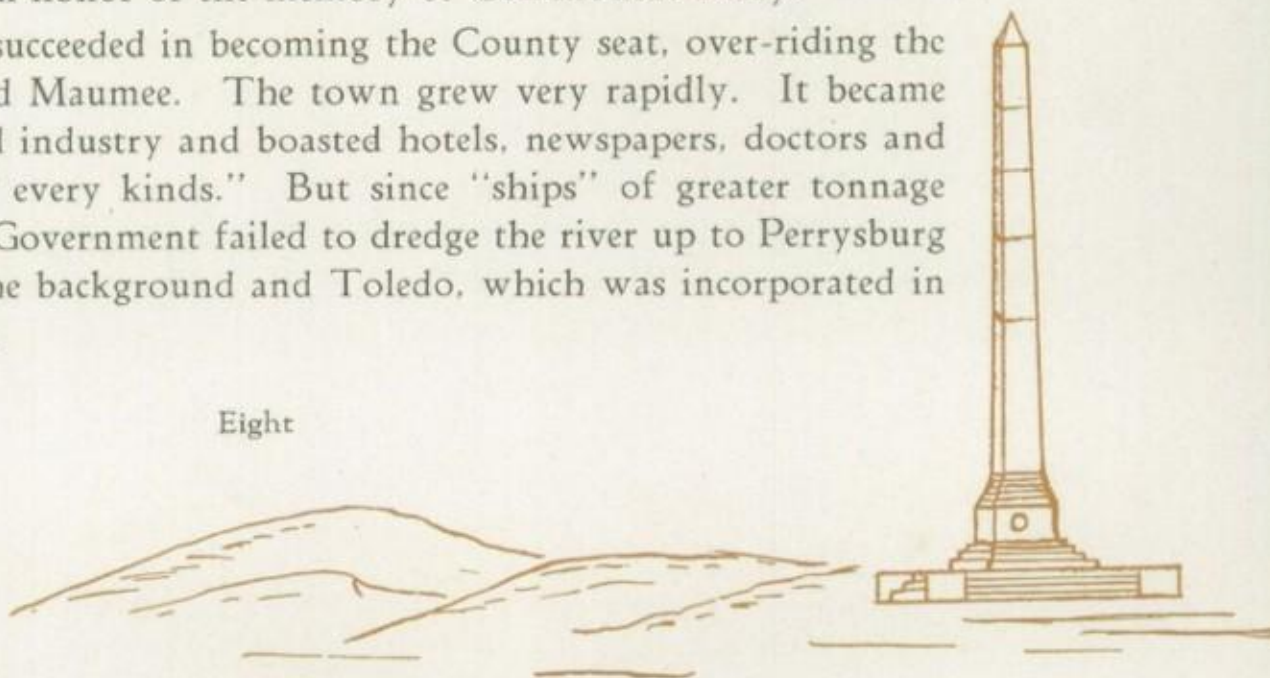

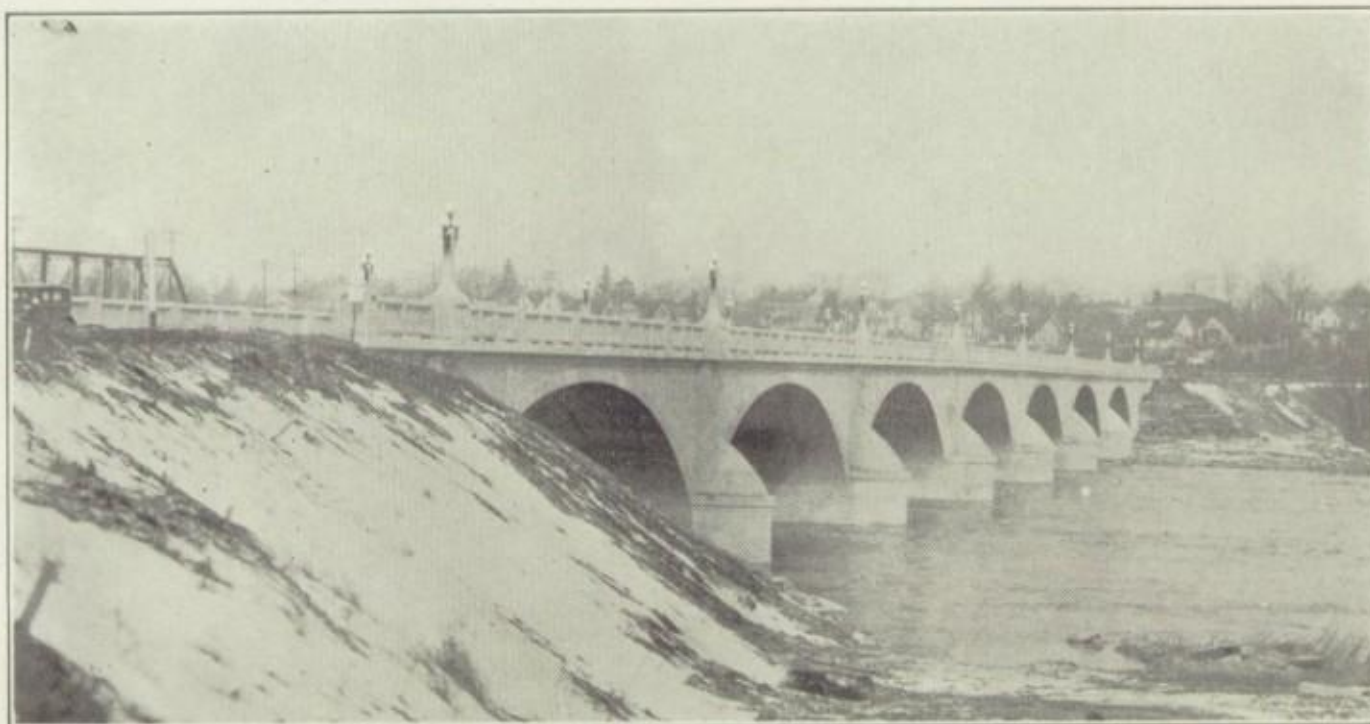

The most decisive battle and probably the second in importance of the War of 1812 which was fought in this vicinity of the Maumee River was the Battle of Lake Erie, September 10, 1813. Commodore Oliver H. Perry, leader of the Americans was overwhelmingly victorious in this battle.

Soldiers returning home after the War of 1812 described "The Maumee Country" as the most forsaken, desolate and ague-stricken wilderness of "forests and swamps in this country" with the exception of the "Dismal Swamp" of Virginia, and as such it became known all over the United States. However, some of Wayne's soldiers were attracted to the country by its wonderful game supply and the hopes of a remunerative traffic in furs with the Indians and traders. Therefore, posts immediately sprung up all over the valley and in 1816 Alexander Bourne was sent by the Federal Government to select the site for a town at the foot of the Maumee Rapids. Perrysburg was then laid out by the United States surveyors and received its name from Governor Meigs who suggested that it be named in honor of the memory of Commodore Perry.

In 1822 Perrysburg succeeded in becoming the County seat, over-riding the ambitions of Orleans and Maumee. The town grew very rapidly. It became a center of commerce and industry and boasted hotels, newspapers, doctors and courts "besides stores of every kinds." But since "ships" of greater tonnage were built and since the Government failed to dredge the river up to Perrysburg the latter stepped into the background and Toledo, which was incorporated in 1836, assumed first place.

Eight

In 1875 the county seat was moved to Bowling Green and Perrysburg lost its chief claims to material importance. However, it can still boast of much which larger cities cannot—a past important in history and a beautiful setting in Nature.

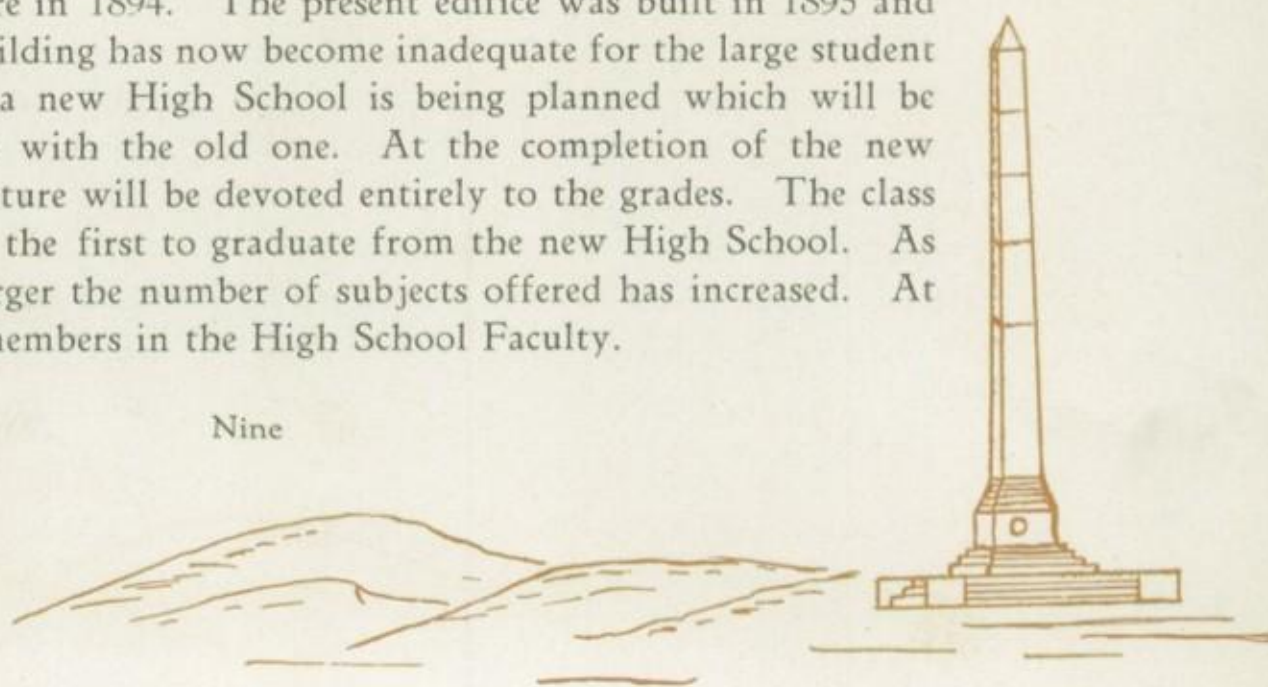

At present there is a movement on foot to construct several parks along the banks of the Maumee River. This is being done to preserve this region's historic scenes for the public rather than allowing them to become privately owned exhibitions.

Perrysburg High School was founded in 1849 by A. D. Wright. Fifty students were enrolled. There are now 262 students in High School and 570 in the grades.

The first building was a brick structure 60x90 feet. It was enlarged in 1868 and destroyed by fire in 1894. The present edifice was built in 1895 and enlarged in 1917. This building has now become inadequate for the large student enrollment. Therefore, a new High School is being planned which will be built on the same block with the old one. At the completion of the new building the present structure will be devoted entirely to the grades. The class of 1931 is expected to be the first to graduate from the new High School. As the school has become larger the number of subjects offered has increased. At present there are eleven members in the High School Faculty.

Nine

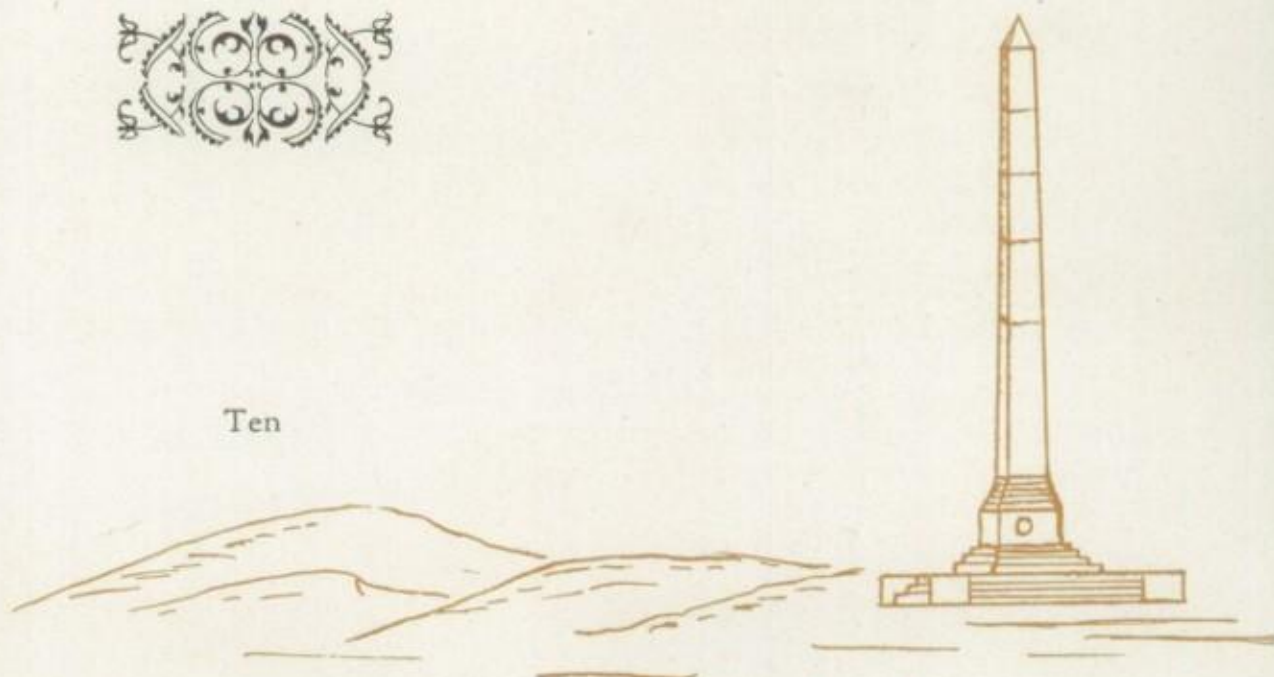

Perrysburg High School is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and five years ago became a part of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools:

Perrysburg enters annually many athletic, literary and musical contests and succeeds admirably in supporting its high standards.

The school, through its competent faculty and the interested Citizens of Perrysburg, has developed splendidly since its beginning eighty-one years ago. It is the earnest wish of the 1930 graduating class that this school may continue in the same upward path so that the Alumni may always be proud to say that they graduated from P. H. S.

ADMINISTRATION

County Superintendent of Schools

Mr. H. E. Hall has served the county as County Superintendent of Schools ever since the organization of the county unit in 1914. He is one of the few County Superintendents in the state, that has such a tenure record. The schools of the county owe their high rank to the untiring efforts of Mr. Hall.

Mr. Riggle

To Mr. Riggle, the superintendent, the class of 1930 owes a debt of gratitude. He has earnestly cooperated with both the faculty and the student body and has backed every project. The student body is well acquainted with Mr. Riggle and realize what an influence for the good he exerts. His democratic viewpoint and amiable attitude, his sincerity and loyalty have endeared him to the Seniors of 1930.

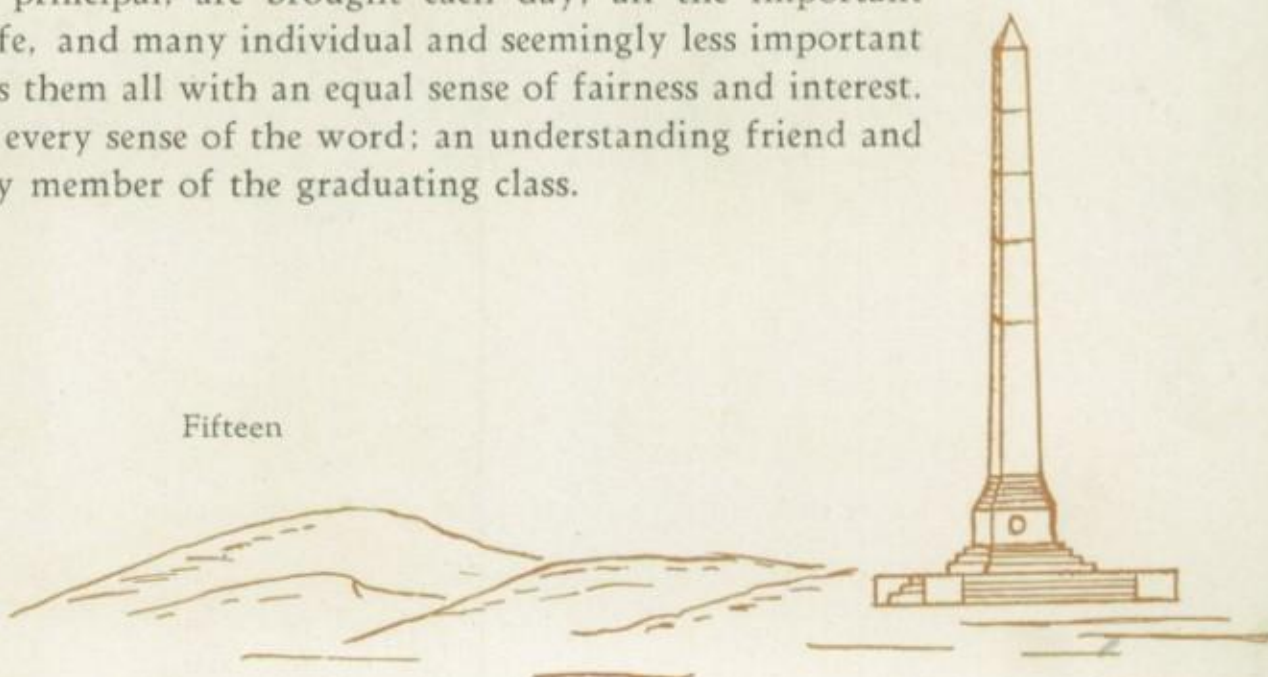

Mr. Treece

To Mr. Treece, our principal, are brought each day, all the important problems of high school life, and many individual and seemingly less important ones. He efficiently meets them all with an equal sense of fairness and interest. Class History

CHAPTER I.

On September 9, 1926, about ninety-five green looking individuals found themselves crowded in a big hall with a lot of experienced and dignified looking persons. This quantity of green looking individuals turned out to be none other than the new Freshman Class. The hall was later found to be called the Assembly, and the experienced and dignified looking persons were found to be not so dignified, but merely the more experienced students in the High School, who proved to be very helpful in making out that Thing known as a schedule.

When that color always ascribed to Freshmen had begun to get dull, our sponsor, Mr. Scheld, told us to assemble in the auditorium. After everybody had arrived without mishap, we were informed that we were to choose officers to lead us through the year. We proved ourselves not so inexperienced when we elected the following:

President.....	CLAYTON BOSTDORF
Vice-President.....	JUNE SHEPHERD
Secretary.....	PATRICK DOWLING
Treasurer.....	MAURINE DUNBAR
Reporter.....	RUTH COCANOUR

We were very proud to have our class represented in Athletics and the County Contest. The names of several of our class members appeared on the Honor Roll throughout the year, also.

CHAPTER II.

In September of the following year, 1927, we again assembled in this same hall. But this year there were not quite ninety-five, nor could we be distinguished by any special color. But "The Color" was not absent, and we set about treating these new-comers as we had been treated, both for better and for worse.

We were again told to assemble, but this time we remained in Our Assembly. We were not surprised when we were told by our able and much-needed sponsor, Mr. Huffman, that nominations were open for President. We again used our good judgment in selecting the following officers:

President.....	JUNE SHEPHERD
Vice-President.....	JOHN BAYERS
Secretary-Treasurer.....	JOSHUA LEHMAN
Reporter.....	JOHN KRUSE

This year we chose Amber and Brown as colors and gave our first party. We also helped give the Senior Banquet.

We again were well represented in Athletics and the Contests, as well as on the Honor Roll. After working hard for nine months, we looked forward with eagerness to the coming vacation.

CHAPTER III.

September, 1928, again found us gathered together, this time in the Junior Assembly. We were becoming more dignified as time went on, so this year we left the green individuals to the Sophomores, and busied ourselves with electing a capable group of officers to lead us successfully through the year. The following were chosen:

President.....	CLAYTON BOSTDORF
Vice-President.....	DORIS ZINGG
Secretary.....	PATRICK DOWLING
Treasurer.....	WILLIAM THORNTON
Reporter.....	JOHN KRUSE

Mrs. Milburn acted as our sponsor this year. We gave a Christmas party for the High School, and we had charge of the Senior Banquet, both of which were very successful and enjoyable. We chose Blue and Silver for our class colors and the White Rose for our flower.

We still had a good representation in the school activities, and at the close of the year two of our members, Joshua Lehman and Harry Fenneberg, were elected to the National Honor Society.

Then came the much looked for vacation, but when we realized that we had only one more year in P. H. S., our spirits were somewhat dampened. However, even this did not keep us from enjoying our vacation.

CHAPTER IV.

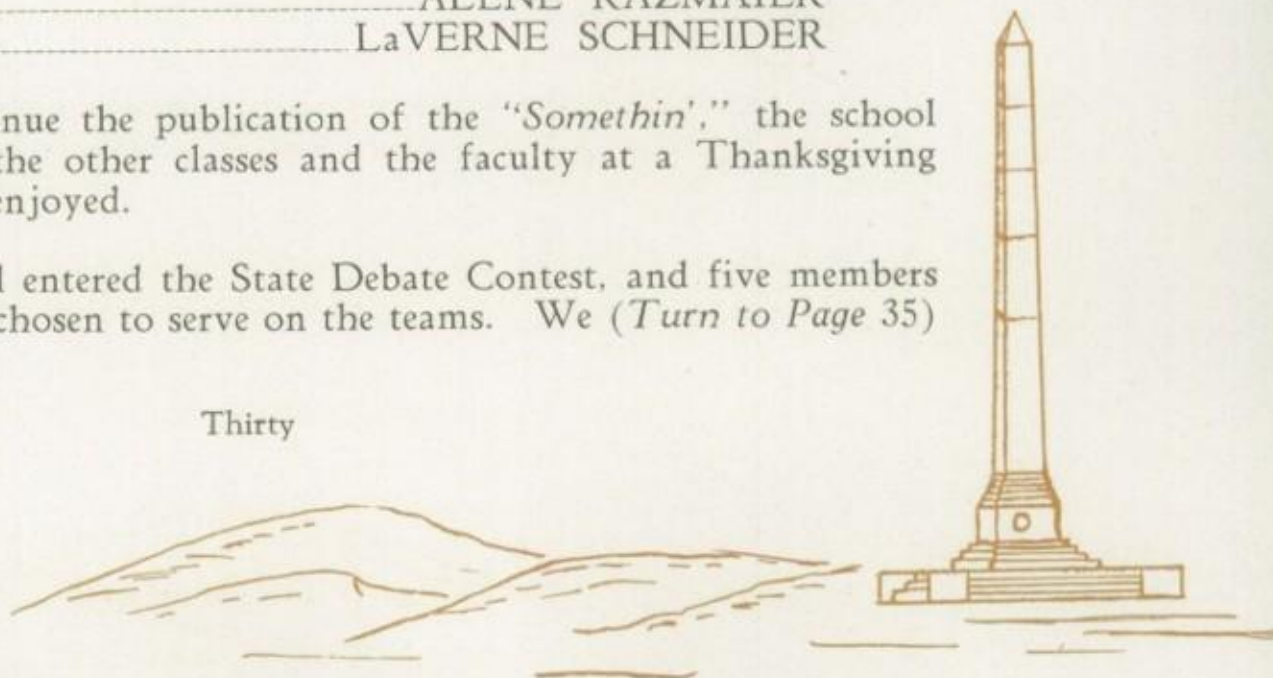

The next year we assembled in the Senior Assembly, feeling very dignified and important. We numbered only forty-six this year, but we resolved to make the year a memorable one in our history, and that of the school.

As usual, we soon met to elect our officers, and this year we picked the following:

President.....	PATRICK DOWLING
Vice-President.....	LESLIE LAINE
Secretary.....	JOSHUA LEHMAN
Treasurer.....	WILLIAM THORNTON
Reporter.....	ALENE KAZMAIER
Cheer-Leader.....	LaVERNE SCHNEIDER

We decided to continue the publication of the "Somethin'," the school paper. We entertained the other classes and the faculty at a Thanksgiving party, which everybody enjoyed.

This year our school entered the State Debate Contest, and five members of the Senior Class were chosen to serve on the teams. We (Turn to Page 35)

The Most Famous Class

By Geoffrey Bulward

This magazine has asked me to state which I think is the greatest class, and also give the reasons for my decision. All classes having been considered, I would say the Perrysburg High School Class of 1930 is the greatest the world has yet known. All my proof I have taken in the form of excerpts from Cyril Munger's Diary. He, himself, was a graduate of that class.

January 1, 1939. Last night and most of this morning I celebrated and welcomed the New Year by going to the Guild Theatre to see the stage version of S. S. Van Dine's famous novel, "The Greene Murder Case." Philo Vance was played very excellently by Martin Hull an old actor, but to me, my old classmates, June Shepherd as Sybil, Alene Kazmaier as Ada and Richard Leubben as the careless Rex did far better. Never before had I been so engrossed in a play But, oh my head! That is due to the Night Club afterward where I heard the famous Helen Troyer sing.

June 8, 1939. At last Congress has settled the Farm Problem. Many thanks to Wally Caldwell or, Little Diary, perhaps I had better say in a more dignified manner Senator Caldwell.

July 4, 1939. "Blazes!! he said in a tone of disgust but Blazes were every where last night and this morning when a large part of the Chanin Street Orphan's Home burned and let me tell you, Mr. Leatherback Diary, it was no Mrs. O'Leary's Cow that started this but regardless Vernice Kiefer and Dwight Hufford distinguished themselves as firemen. Oh yes, Vernice still does his bit for the Lime City Gazette. We are proud that we know them, aren't we, Diary?

November 23, 1939. Scandal? No! It just takes plenty of courage for a young oncoming artist to elope with a fifty million dollar heiress that's what it takes. And Clayton Bostdorf, Dick to us, showed he had plenty to do that.

December 24, 1939. It's gong to be a very Merry Christmas for Pat Dowling and LaVerne Schneider. Metropolitan Opera Company has just signed both of them to sing the leads in "Martha."

February 2, 1940. Geraldine Hufford Hastoff, Johnson, Society Matron, dedicated the new Leonard Hospital and she did it in such a dignified and courteous fashion that she had all the newspaper men under her finger, even the greatest, who is a woman and who happens to be Catherine Hayes.

February 4, 1940. The Staff for the new city hospital has been chosen. Among those I noticed the name of Bernice Eckel who is superintendent of nurses and Dorothy Brossia, who is head of the Dietician Department.

Thirty-One

September 4, 1940. It is thought that soon the students of the U. S. will go to school under a new method. At least that is the opinion of the woman editor, Mrs. Ruth Niederhouse Hale.

September 15, 1940. On Sept. 21, the students of the U. S. will go to school under a new method for the bill went through Congress under the protective hand of Wilma Farris, Senator from Ohio.

September 18, 1940. The president has appointed Miss Farris as the Secretary of Education. She in turn, has appointed as her assistants Mrs. Virginia Taylor Coleridge, Mrs. Ruth Longworth Bryant and Mr. Charles Johnson Kelt. The first is an old classmate of mine, Mr. D. I. Ary.

April 1, 1942. It has been a long time since I have remembered you with anything about the class of '30, Diary, but I have been sick and had found a beautiful world in poetry. Here is one of the quotations from the "Leaf" by Marie Eckel:

"As a leaf down the long river life do we float; Sailing, sailing on into the endless."

October 29, 1942. "Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast" said a poet, long ago. So it did, My Knowing Friend. It did, it did, when old friends Ruth Cocanour, Jessie Swartz and Walter Snyder played last night over the radio.

November 2, 1942. War declared, again! Wilt there never be peace? The troops have already begun training; training to kill and to die under the wonderful General Raymond Wolfe.

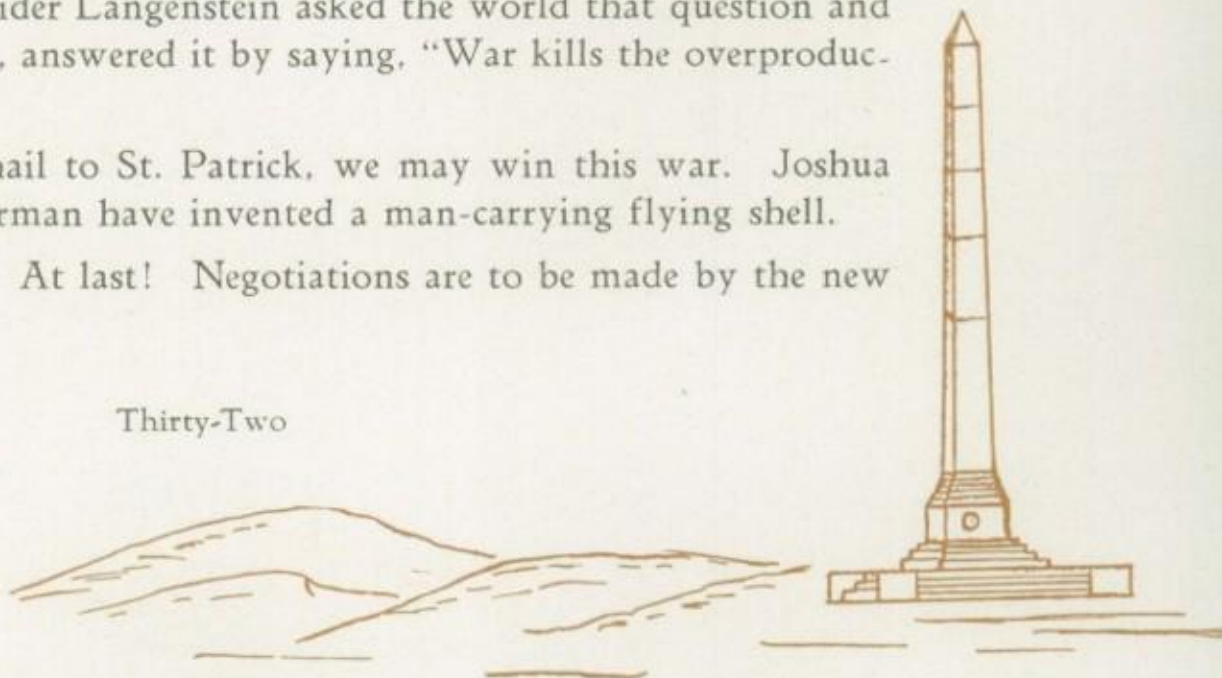

December 14, 1942. "What would we do without great people to entertain us?" claims Beatrice Sherman Wolf. Yes, what would we do? What would the troops do without their "pets" of the regiment. Grace Thornton, the dancer and Doris Zingg, the reader?

November 1, 1943. Three Cheers for Leslie Laine. By his stunts he sold more Liberty Loans than any other person last month. That's patriotism.

January 17, 1944. "Why war?" I never thought to ask myself that question but Margery Schneider Langenstein asked the world that question and there to show her versatility, answered it by saying, "War kills the overproduction of people."

March 17, 1944. All hail to St. Patrick, we may win this war. Joshua Lehman and Harold Leatherman have invented a man-carrying flying shell.

June 18, 1944. Peace! At last! Negotiations are to be made by the new pacifist, John Kruse.

May 1, 1945. "A beauty prize winner," exclaimed the eminent Harry Fenneberg as he took the crown and placed it on Ellen Uthoff's head! We are with you, Harry. You were right.

May 28, 1945. "Laugh and the world laughs with you" thought Dorothy Nietz when she wrote "Don't Be Like That." I thought I was too old to laugh but I guess I am not quite, yet, for I laughed all the time when I read the book.

February 1, 1946. Whoopee! A race! not on foot but in the head between Reed Berning and Fern Schaller to see who can write more quickly the best newspaper feature. Reed's is a cartoon strip while Fern devotes herself to a serial. Who are you for, Diary? I am not saying.

August 26, 1946. The beach was wonderful for swimming. Put on your bathing suit and come out. Oh don't feel offended because I said that when I knew you couldn't. You see, I am very happy. I met two friends both married and happy, Velma Reitzel Douglas and Margaret Moore Howard. Their husbands run a scientific farm for the U. S. Government.

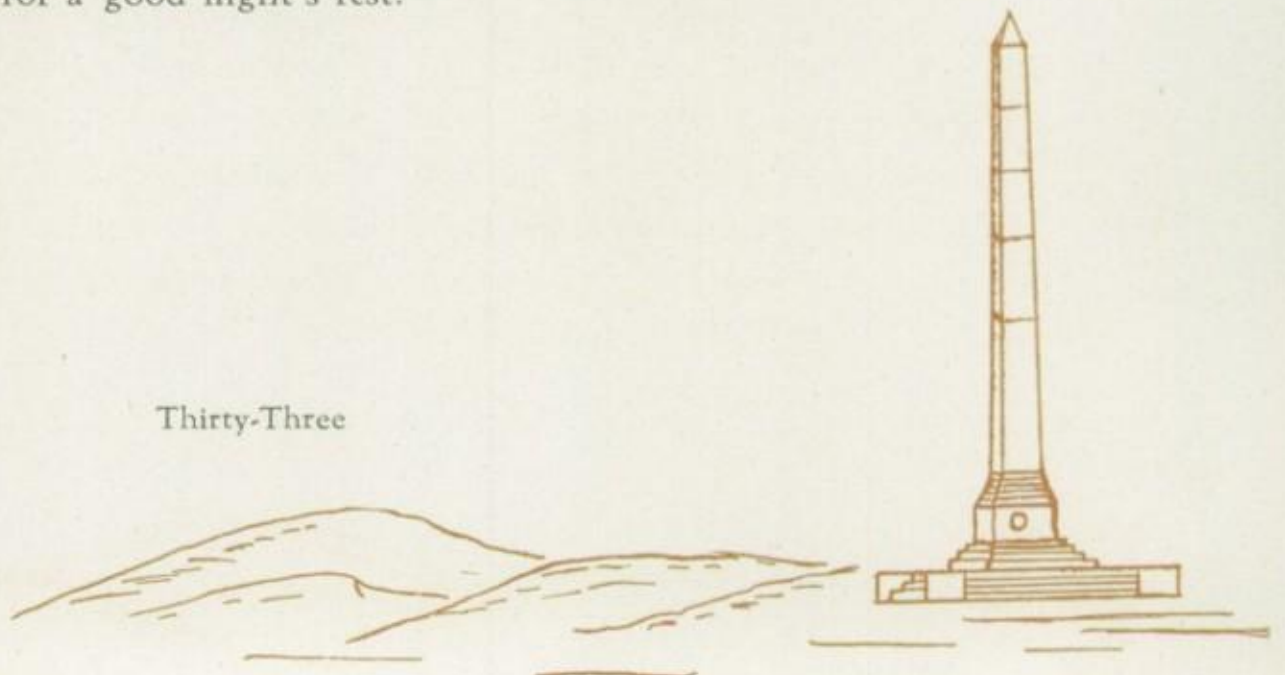

November 26, 1946. Oh what a rain outside but we are cozy and warm beside our fire and with our new novel which I think is the best I have read this year. Mrs. Rudolph wrote it (Esther Steiner was her name when we went to school together).

January 12, 1947. When a bitter wind is blowing outside, my advice to the world is to turn on the television and listen to the crooning bass Bill Thornton who renders the vocal refrains for Arden Snyder's Collegiate Band performing under the scintillating sub-title of Snyder's Sublime Syncopators. Rudy Vallee, so popular in our High School days is old and gray now.

April 1, 1947. Not April Fool's Day for some young women namely Clarice Bihn, Lucille Walp and Winifred Schober who have quite upset the world by having Alexandre Furee say that their store is the foremost style exhibition of the world. Hurray! So New York is Paris, now!

October 7, 1948. Justin Schwind, modern reformer, advocates that the U. S. become once again an English speaking country. Shake, Justin, I am with you. Now to bed for a good night's rest.

The Way Scholarship

The Way Scholarship has for nearly fifty years been one of the best known features in the educational life of Perrysburg and is to be awarded this year for the thirteenth time. This scholarship is the gift of Willard V. Way who came to Perrysburg in 1834, where he resided and engaged in the practice of law until his death in 1875 when it was found that he had bequeathed to public uses in this community funds for the establishment of a park, a scholarship and a Library.

Under the terms of Mr. Way's will the Board of Education every four years appoints a committee of three disinterested persons to examine the graduating class and "to recommend three scholars in said class most distinguished for natural ability, scholarship and good conduct," and from the three so recommended the Board of Education then selects by lot the one to whom the scholarship fund in the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($300 each year for four years is to be paid. Custom has ordained that the examination thus provided for shall take place about two weeks before the end of the school year and the selection of a candidate from the three recommended shall be a part of the commencement exercises.

As a matter of record there follows in chronological order a list of those who have participated as candidates for the Way scholarship, the winner on each occasion and the College or University attended.

1882. Carrie Pierce (Thompson), Margaret A. Zaenger, Frederick Hollenbeck. Miss Zaenger was the winner and attended Berea College until her death in March, 1885, when Mr. Hollenbeck received the fund for the rest of the four years, attending the University of Michigan.
1886. Henry R. Roether, Cora Chappel (Barton) and Julia Eberly (Pyles). Miss Eberly won and attended Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio.
1890. H. A. Lampman, J. A. Ross and Anna Roether were the only three in this class eligible and the choice fell upon Mr. Ross who attended the University of Michigan.
1894. F. C. Averill, Samuel Reither and Leslie M. Ross. Mr. Reither won and attended Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware.
1898. R. R. Hartshorn, Norman L. Hanson and LeRoy Welstead. Mr. Welstead won and attended Ohio Wesleyan University and the University of Michigan medical school.

1902. Ralph T. Hanson, Raymond Pringle and Edward L. Wenz. The choice fell to Mr. Pringle who attended Oberlin College.
1906. Lulu Bayer (Rossbach), Grover Schaller and Karl Eberly. Mr. Eberly won and attended the Literary and Medical Schools of the University of Michigan.
1910. Ray Zachman, Roland Herkimer and Clayton Chambers. Mr. Chambers won and he attended the University of Michigan.
1914. Cenia Small, Irene Clay and Mildred Williams. Miss Williams won and attended Oberlin College.
1918. Cozy Grimes, Mildred Witzler and Arthur McIntosh. Mr. McIntosh won and attended Case School of Applied Science at Cleveland, Ohio.
1922. Doris Fenneberg, Elsie Lusher and Margaret Wiser. Miss Wiser won and attended Wooster College.

also had many participants in the other school activities again.

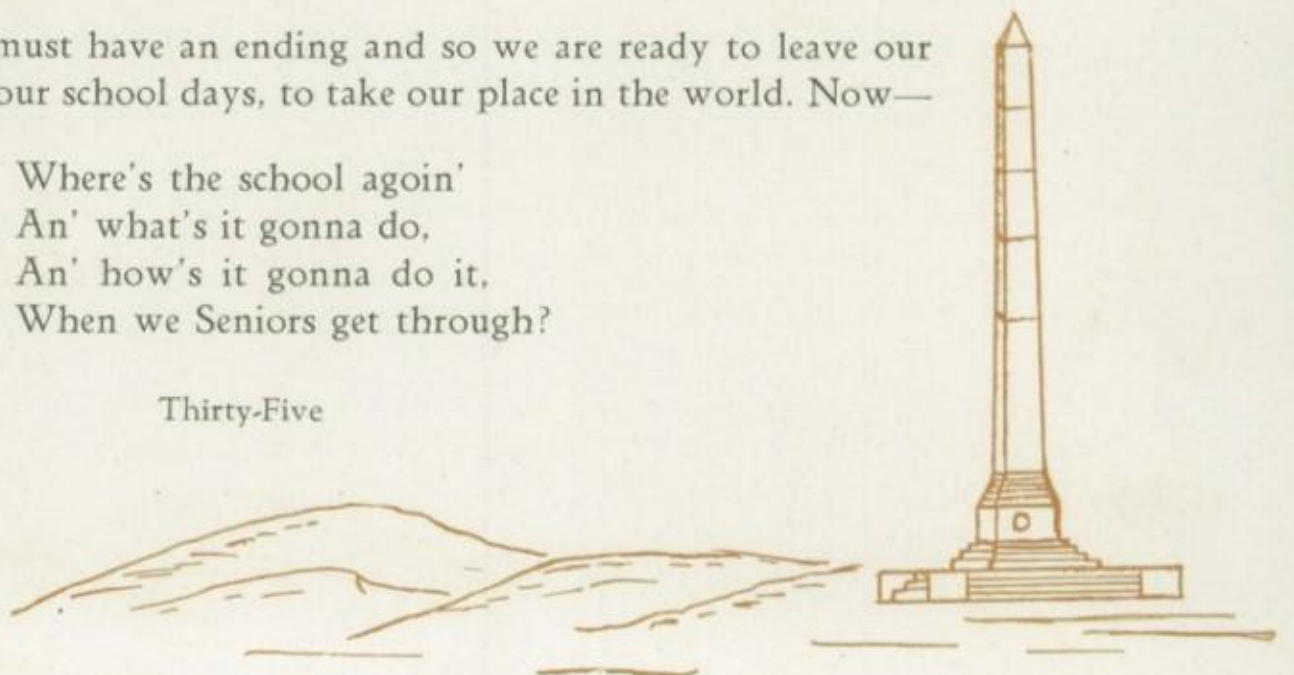

At the end of the first semester five more of the class were elected to the National Honor Society. They were Fern Schaller, Ruth Cocanour, June Shepherd, Cyril Munger and Arden Snyder.

We retained the class colors and flowers that we chose the year before, and for our motto we chose "Vincens et Victurus."

But all good things must have an ending and so we are ready to leave our dear old alma mater, and our school days, to take our place in the world. Now—

Where's the school agoin'
An' what's it gonna do,
An' how's it gonna do it,
When we Seniors get through?

Vice-President	RALPH MERICLE
Secretary	FRED GRISS
Treasurer	WESLEY STANFORD
Class Reporter	DOROTHY MAHLER

In the Sophomore year the class decreased to sixty-three members. They started the year out right by electing the class officers as follows:

President	ALFRED SNYDER
Vice-President	HELENE BAKER

Freshman Class History

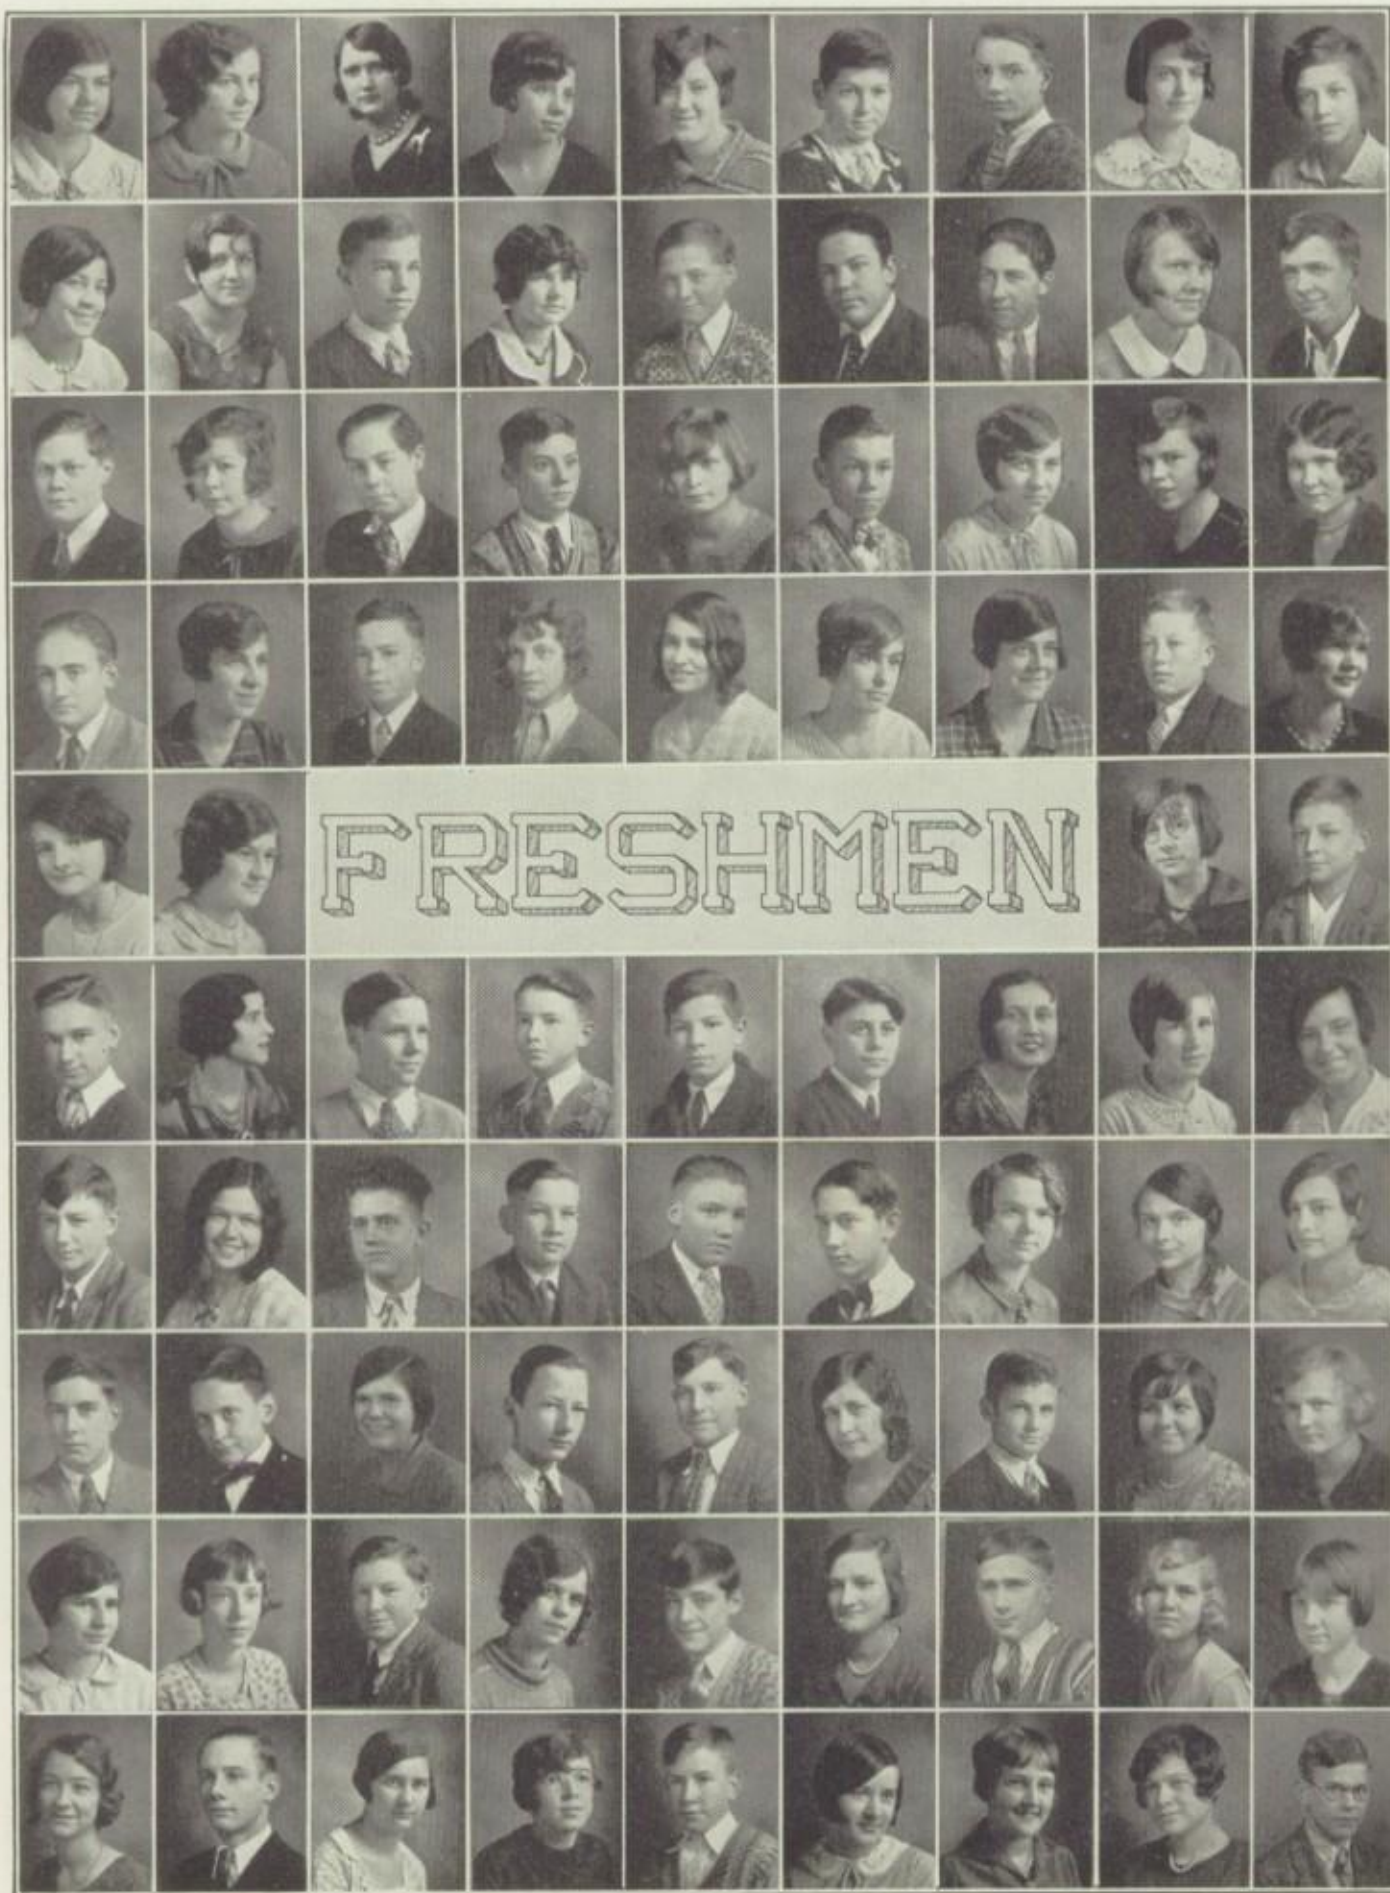

In the month of September, 1929, about 86 Freshmen entered P. H. S. The class was organized early in September under the direction of Mr. Canfield, their sponsor. The following officers were elected:

President	WILDA WALKER
Vice-President	HAROLD GOEKE
Secretary and Treasurer	CARL ECKEL
Class Reporter	JAY TWINING
Cheer Leader	GENEVIEVE KAZMAIER

The Freshman Class has been well represented each six weeks on the Honor Roll. They now feel that they have become acquainted with the rules and principles of Perrysburg High School. We wish them every kind of success during the next three years of their High School Course.

Athenian Literary Society

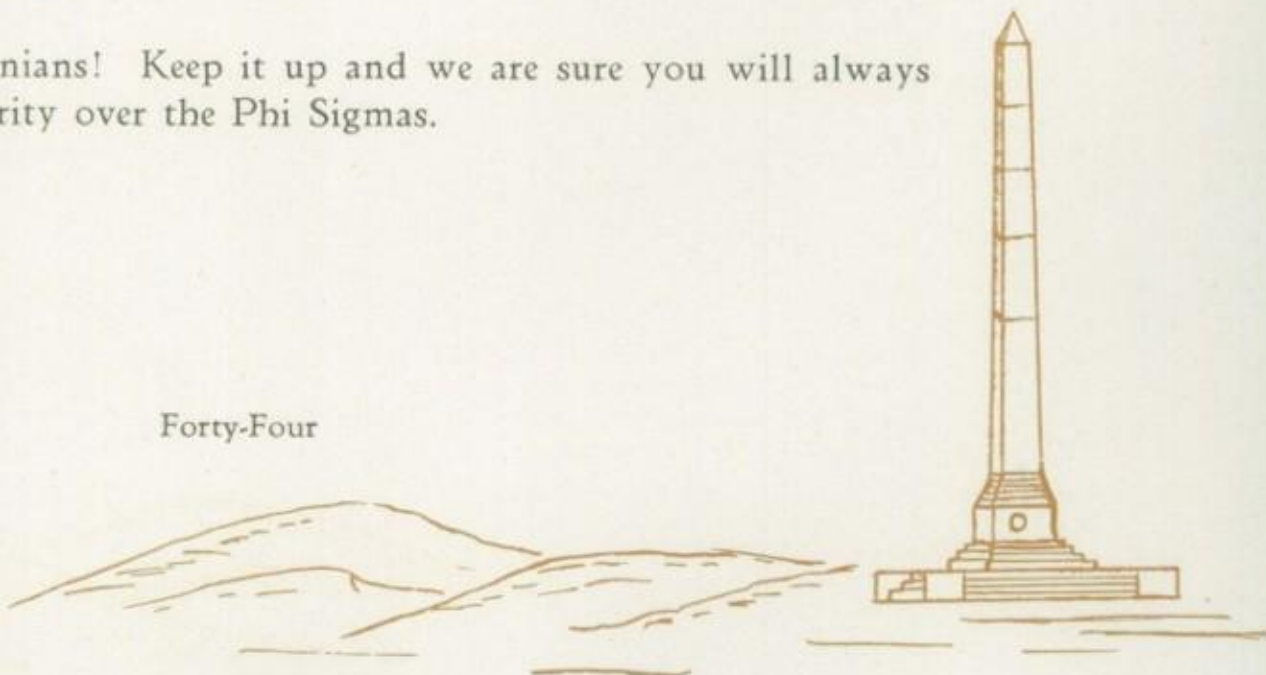

This year under the guidance of Mrs. Milburn and Mr. Huffman the Athenians elected the following officers:

President.....	PATRICK DOWLING
Vice-President.....	CLAYTON BOSTDORF
Secretary.....	JOHN KRUSE
Treasurer.....	LESLIE LAINE

Shortly after the election, the officers and sponsors set to work on the first program of the season. This and the following programs have turned out very successfully. Many new members appeared on the programs this year. The Parrot, published under a new editor was well received.

There will not be a contest program this year since it would interfere with the County Literary Contest.

Splendid work, Athenians! Keep it up and we are sure you will always demonstrate your superiority over the Phi Sigmas.

Phi Sigma Literary Society

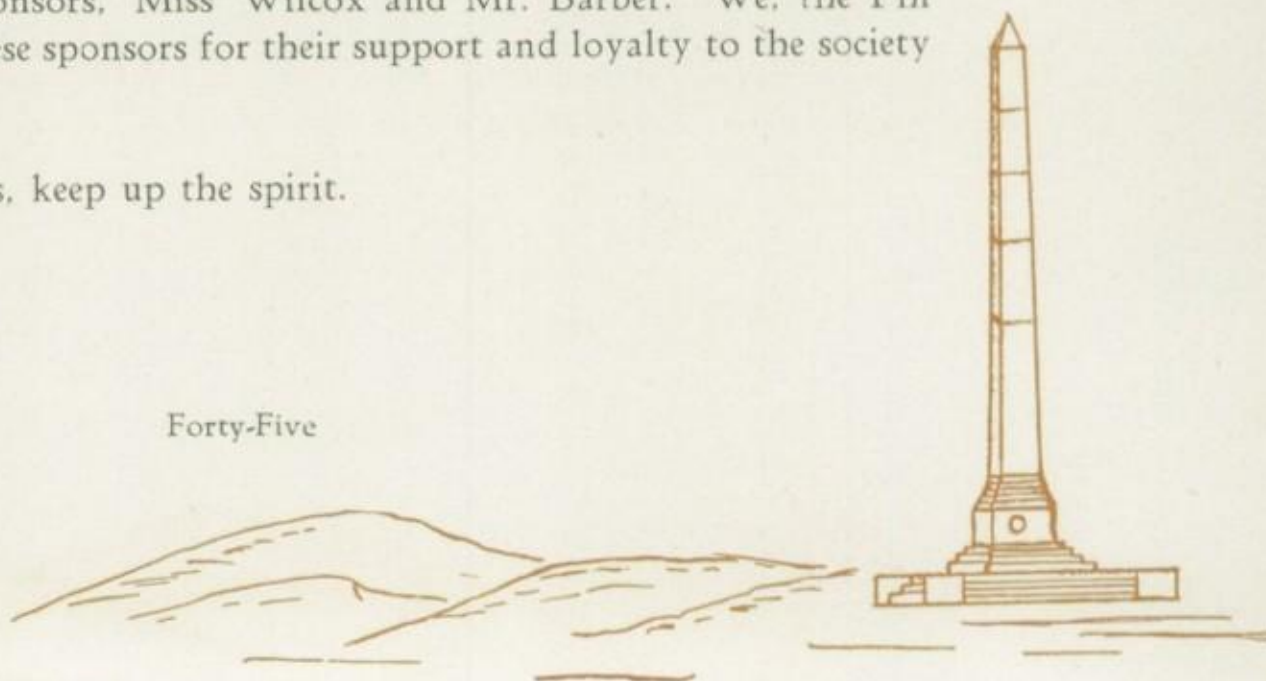

Early in the year a meeting of the Phi Sigma Literary Society, called together a group of old members and also several students desiring to become members.

At this meeting the following officers were elected to take charge of the society's affairs throughout the year

President	DORIS ZINGC
Vice-President	DOROTHY NEITZ
Secretary-Treasurer	JUNIOR RIGGLE
Advisors	AVONELLE PYERS
	CYRIL MUNGER

The society feels that its work in the past year has been very successful in all respects. The success, however, is to a large extent due to the splendid help administered by the sponsors, Miss Wilcox and Mr. Barber. We, the Phi Sigmas, wish to thank these sponsors for their support and loyalty to the society this year.

Orchestra

The orchestra met the first part of the year and elected the following officers:

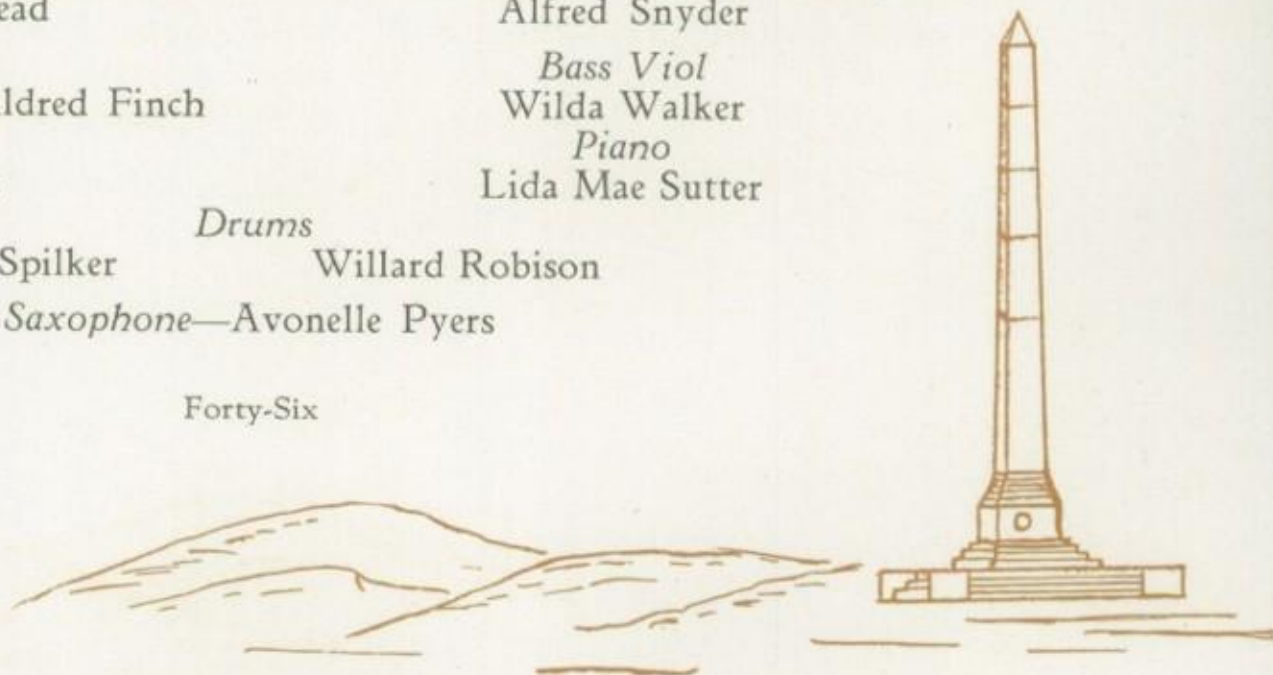

President.....	RUTH COCANOUR
Vice-President.....	ELLEN UTHOFF
Secretary-Treasurer.....	JUNIOR RIGGLE
Librarian.....	LIDA MAE SUTTER

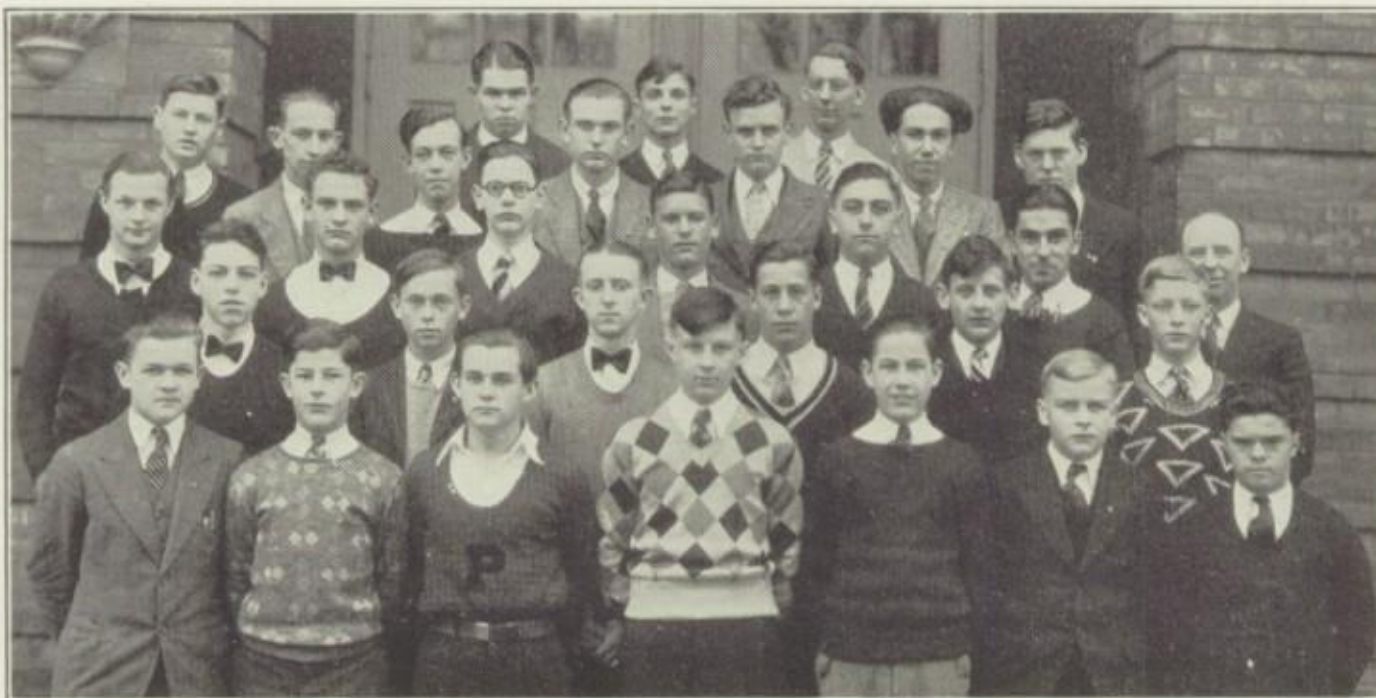

Under Mr. Gerber's excellent direction, the orchestra has progressed a great deal. Several new instruments have been added, making the orchestra a much better balanced organization and more popular than ever before. On April 24, the orchestra will journey to Oberlin to compete in a State Contest. They will compete against orchestras from larger schools. This will be a new experience and we are sure our orchestra will make a splendid showing.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club is an international organization, which has grown out of the Y. M. C. A. The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. It has as its creed: Clean Speech, Clean Living, Clean Athletics, and Clean Scholarship.

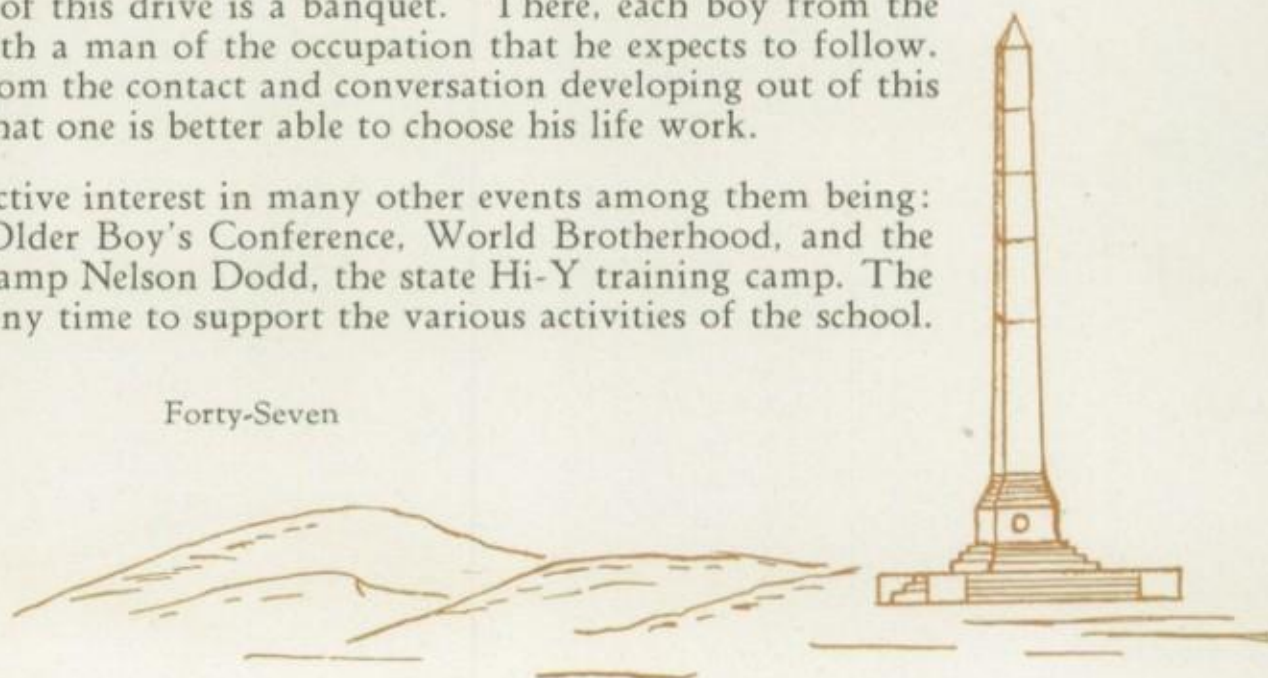

The membership of the Hi-Y is composed of boys of the Sophomore, Junior and Senior Classes. They are chosen, keeping in mind their character and habits.

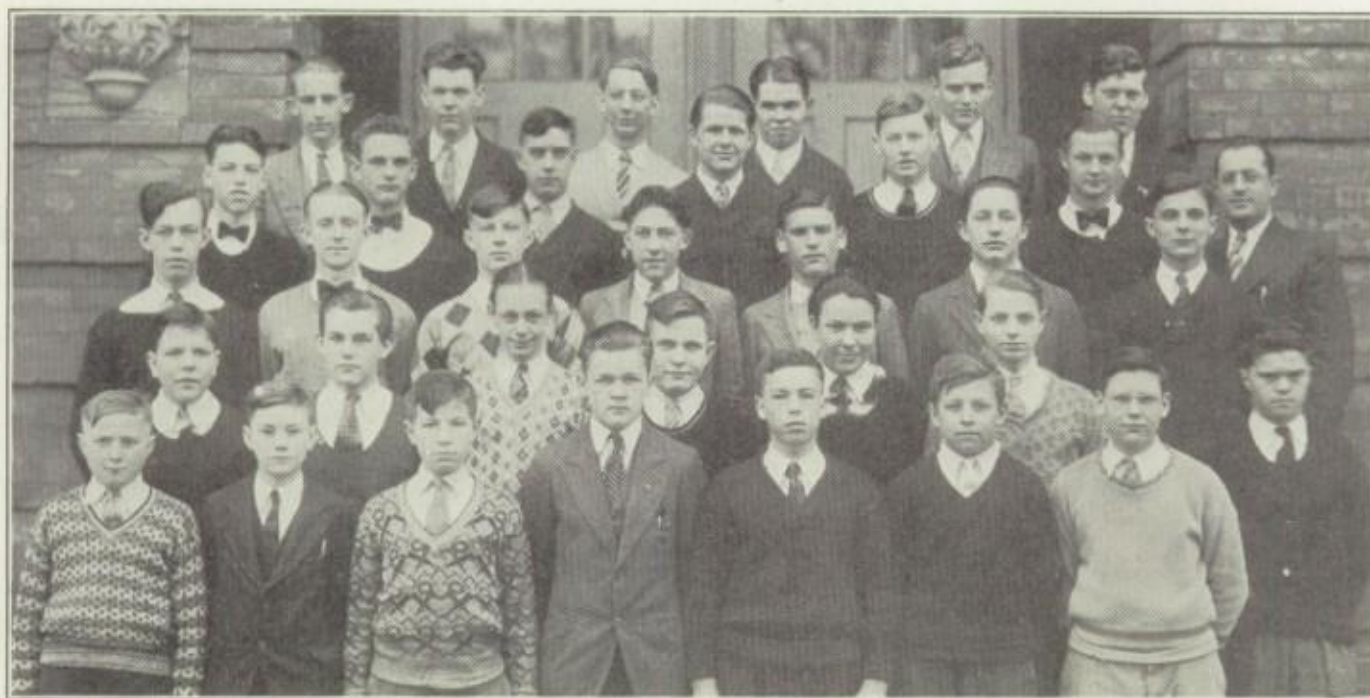

The Perrysburg Hi-Y is very fortunate in having a worthy leader, such as Mr. Treece, as its advisor. The Club owes a great deal of its success to him.

The officers for this year are: President—Joshua Lehman, Vice-President—Justin Schwind, Secretary—William Thornton, Treasurer—Harold Leatherman, Chaplain—Patrick Dowling and Sergeant-at-Arms—Walter Snyder.

The Club is sponsoring, in the early spring, a Vocational Guidance Campaign. The main event of this drive is a banquet. There, each boy from the two upper classes, sits with a man of the occupation that he expects to follow. Much benefit is gained from the contact and conversation developing out of this meeting with the result that one is better able to choose his life work.

The Hi-Y takes an active interest in many other events among them being: Annual Hi-Y Banquet, Older Boy's Conference, World Brotherhood, and the Club sends delegates to Camp Nelson Dodd, the state Hi-Y training camp. The Hi-Y is always ready at any time to support the various activities of the school.

Boys' Glee Club

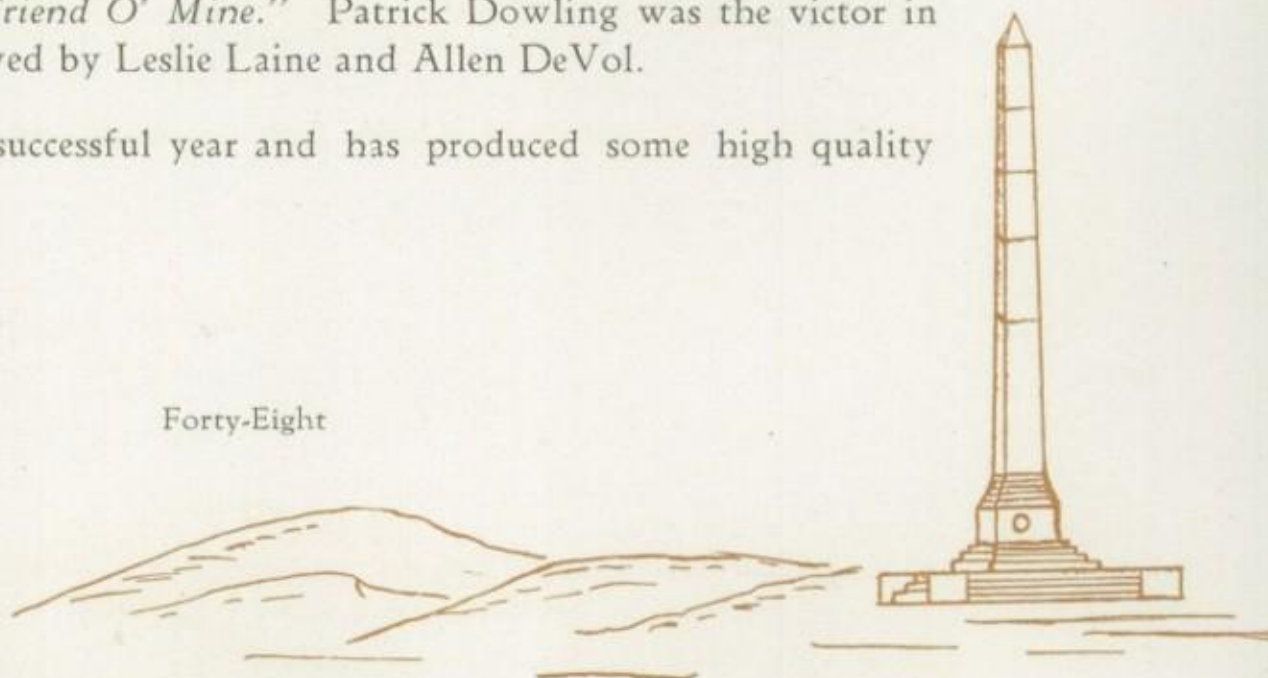

This year a large number of boys joined the Glee Club. These were divided into ten first tenors, ten second tenors, seven baritones and six bass for a total of thirty-three voices. The following officers were elected:

President	PAT DOWLING
Vice-President	WILLIAM THORNTON
Secretary-Treasurer	LESLIE LAINE
Librarian	WALLACE CALDWELL

Under the able leadership of Mr. Gerber they learned many new songs. Sixteen of the members were selected for the boys chorus, who took part in the county contest. Their selection was "The Winter Song."

Several boys competed for the boy's solo. They were: Patrick Dowling, Allen DeVol, Dale Spilker, Ronald Luebben and Leslie Laine. They had as their contest number: "Friend O' Mine." Patrick Dowling was the victor in this contest closely followed by Leslie Laine and Allen DeVol.

The club has had a successful year and has produced some high quality work.

Girls' Glee Club

This year a large number of girls joined the Glee Club and officers were elected immediately as follows:

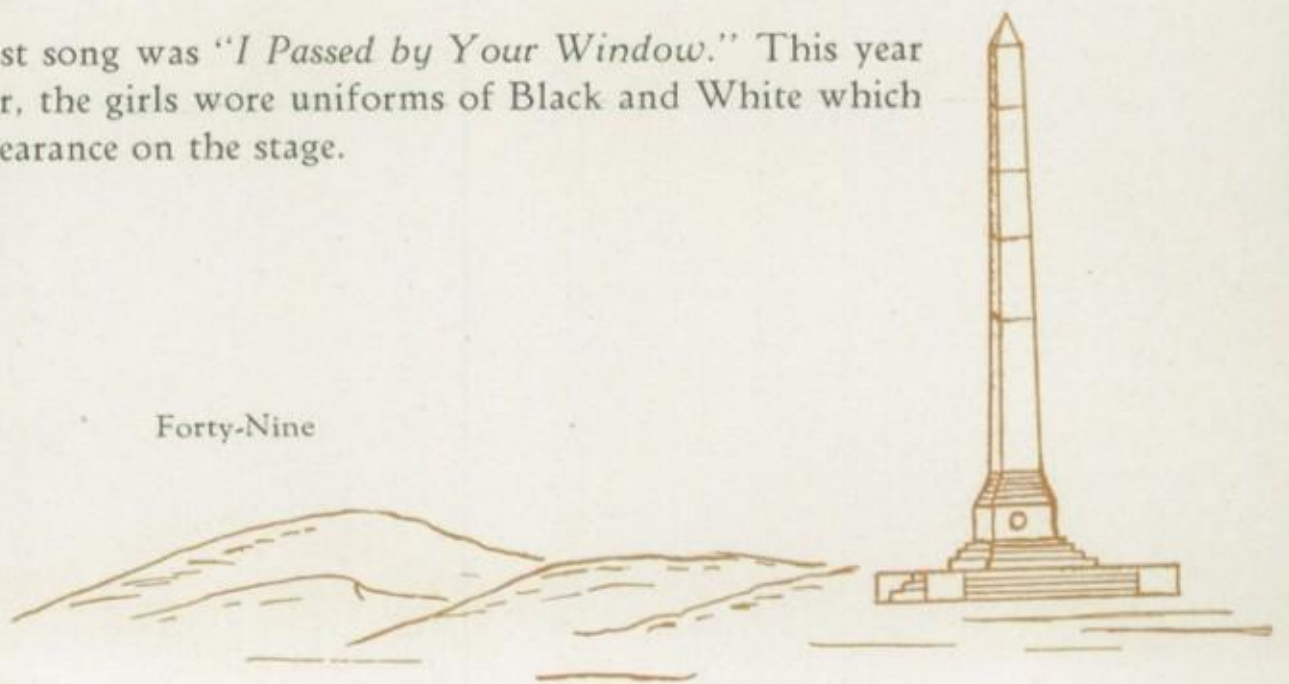

President.....	JUNE SHEPHERD
Vice-President.....	RUTH COCANOUR
Librarian.....	RUTH COEHRS
Treasurer.....	LaVERNE SCHNEIDER

After the first week of confusion was over Mr. Gerber started the girls out by determining the pitch and range of each applicant's voice as well as the tonal quality.

The members sang many songs before it became time for the yearly contest, when sixteen girls were chosen to take part in this important climax to the musical year.

The title of the contest song was "I Passed by Your Window." This year as suggested by Mr. Gerber, the girls wore uniforms of Black and White which made a very attractive appearance on the stage.

Public Speaking Class

The Public Speaking Class of this year has been exceptionally large and fortunate in having a capable instructor, Mrs. Milburn. The members all worked earnestly and many hours were spent in preparing numerous orations. At the weekly chapel meetings several members gave orations, since it is a requirement to make at least one public appearance in order to get credit in Public Speaking.

Nine members of the class entered the elimination contest, the winners of which took part in the county contests. Those entering the elimination competitions were Melvina Kuhlman, Virginia Taylor, Harry Fenneberg, Frances Byrne, who gave orations; and LaVerne Schneider, Eleanor Hilt, Hazel Frusher, Alene Kazmaier and Grace Thornton, who offered readings.

The winners were—Frances Byrne, in the orations and June Shepherd in the readings.

The class has made much progress this year and looks forward to winning honors in the county.

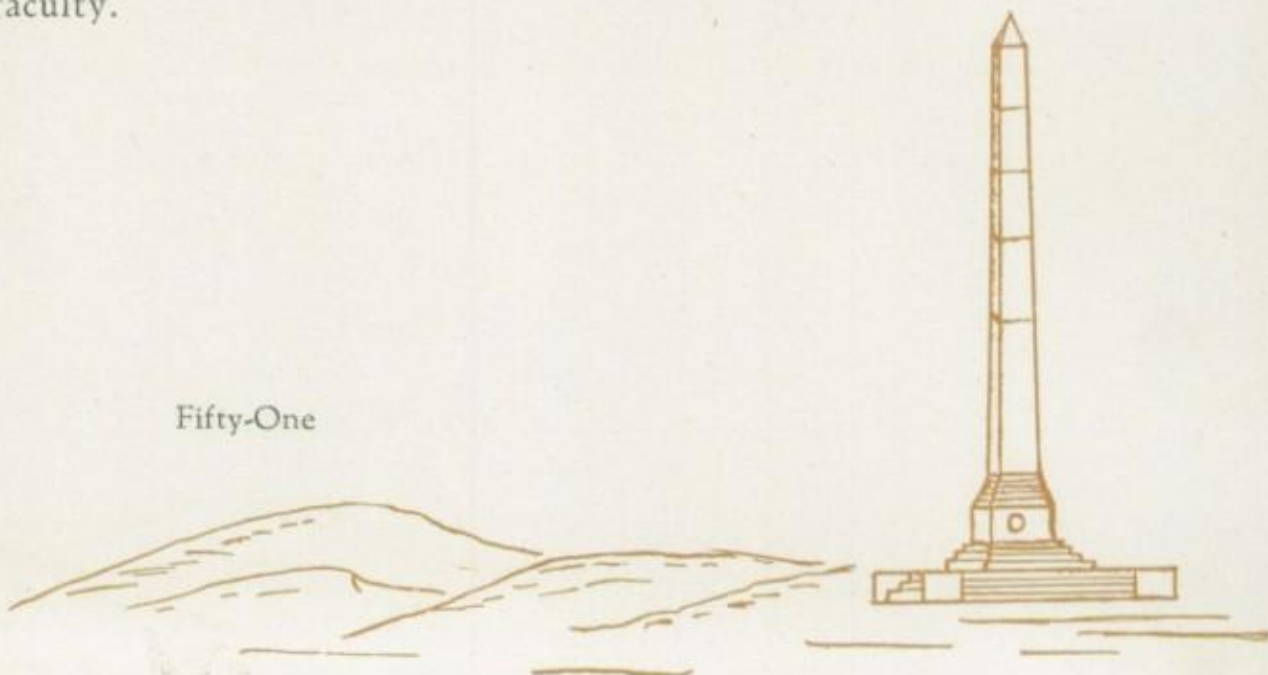

National Honor Society

In 1925 Perrysburg High School received a charter for membership in the National Honor Society. This organization encourages higher scholastic standards, and to be elected to this Society is one of the highest honors bestowed by our School. Membership is based not only on scholastic standing, but also on character, leadership and service of the individual; thus a poor school spirit and unwillingness to serve the school count against membership.

Both Juniors and Seniors are eligible for election to the society. At present there are seven members in the school. They are: Ruth Cocanour, Fern Schaller, June Shepherd, Harry Fenneberg, Joshua Lehman, Cyril Munger and Arden Snyder.

The one regular feature of the Society is the Banquet given in early Spring for the members, by the faculty.

County Contests and Contestants

Toward the close of each school year a series of contests is held to give the students a chance to develop their talents. These contests relieve the monotony of the regular school work and help to develop the spirit of good sportsmanship and a sense of loyalty.

By means of an elimination contest, very able students were chosen to represent our school in the District Contest held on March 21, at Perrysburg. Perrysburg came out victorious by winning ten of the eleven events.

Reading	JUNE SHEPHERD	Stringed Instrument	RUTH COCANOUR
Oration	FRANCIS BYRNE	Wind Instrument	CHARLES SCHNEIDER
Girls' Solo	LaVERNE SCHNEIDER	Piano	LIDA MAE SUTTER
	Boys' Chorus	Girls' Chorus	Orchestra

These winners entered the Semi-County Contest which was held at Perrysburg April 8. The following students came through with first honors from our school:

Oration	FRANCIS BYRNE	Boys' Solo	PATRICK DOWLING
Reading	JUNE SHEPHERD	Stringed Instrument	RUTH COCANOUR
Girls' Solo	LaVERNE SCHNEIDER	Piano	LIDA MAE SUTTER
	Girls' Glee Club	Boys' Solo	Orchestra

They represented the western half of the county in the All-County Contest on April 11. According to the decision of the judges, our school took first honors by winning five firsts:

Oration	FRANCIS BYRNE	Stringed Instrument	RUTH COCANOUR
	Boys' Glee Club

This is the tenth successive County Contest that P. H. S. has won. All students participating in the contests are to be congratulated for their untiring efforts to bring honor and glory to Perrysburg.

The State Debating Contest

This year Perrysburg became interested in a new type of scholastic work, the State Debating Contest, the question being—Resolved: That trial before a judge or board of judges be substituted for trial by jury in the United States.

After the tryouts the following students were chosen to represent their school in this new field:

The teams being chosen, the real work began. For several weeks before the contest began, the debate coaches, Mr. Huffman and Mrs. Milburn worked hard with the debaters.

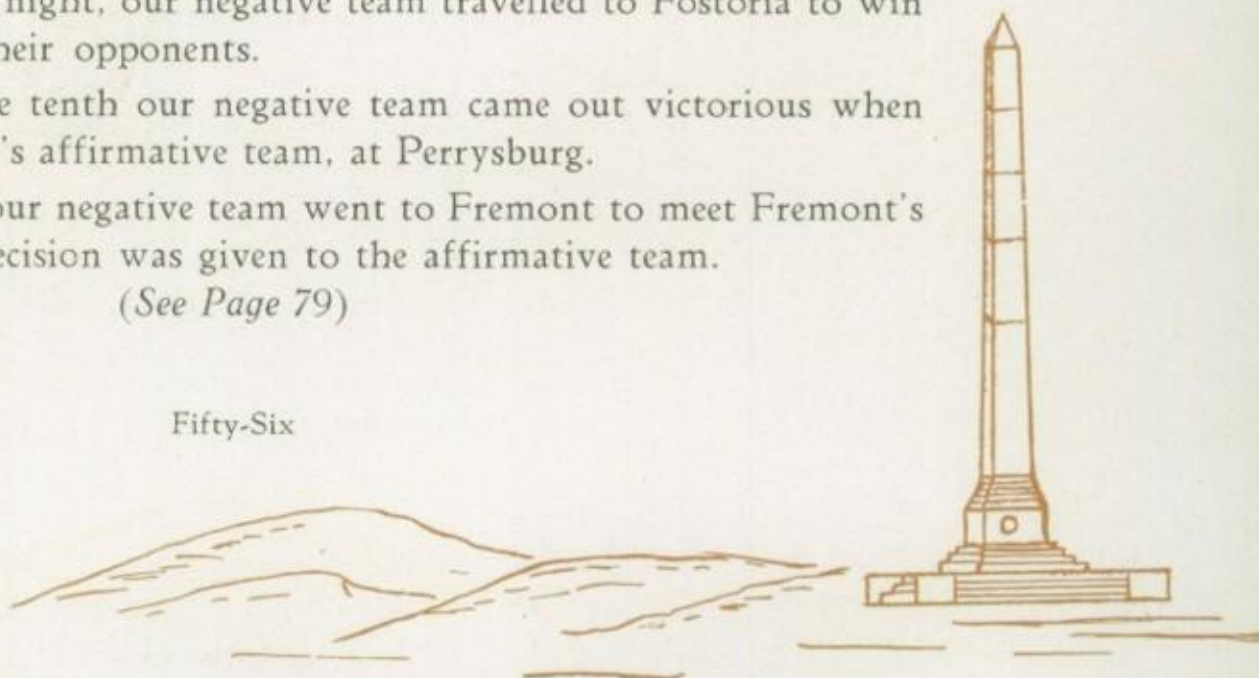

Finally, with the eve of December the twelfth came our first debate. Perrysburg's affirmative team met Rossford's negative team at Perrysburg. The brave endeavors of our team to win were in vain for the decision was given to the negative team.

The following Friday night, our negative team travelled to Fostoria to win a splendid victory over their opponents.

Again on January the tenth our negative team came out victorious when they debated Libbey High's affirmative team, at Perrysburg.

The following week our negative team went to Fremont to meet Fremont's affirmative team. The decision was given to the affirmative team.

ATHLETICS

COACH WEINSTOCK: When Mr. Weinstock gave the call for the football candidates this season, a great number of green looking, could or would-be players responded. There were only a few mainstays and it was quite a task for him to pick a team. Mr. Weinstock surely has shown his ability to make a good team out of green material. We sincerely appreciate the time and work that he has given towards athletics.

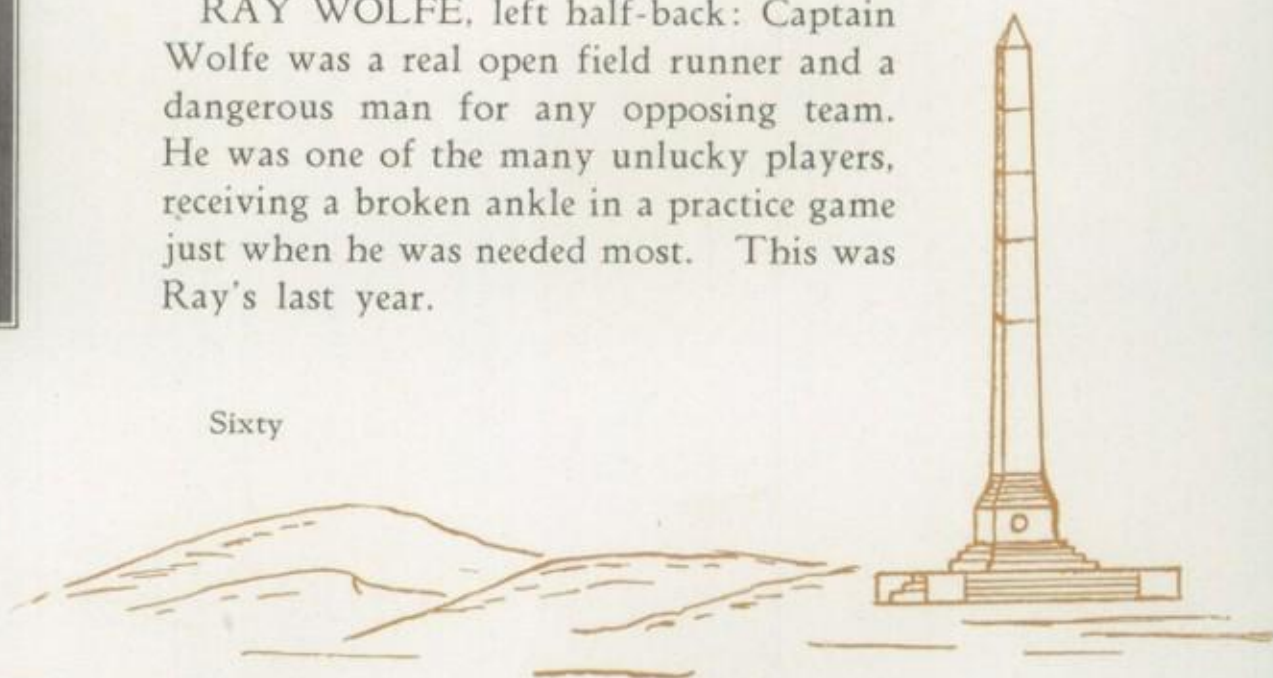

DONALD CANFIELD, Assistant Coach: Doc put in much valuable time on the football field, whipping the material into shapes for the future teams of P. H. S.

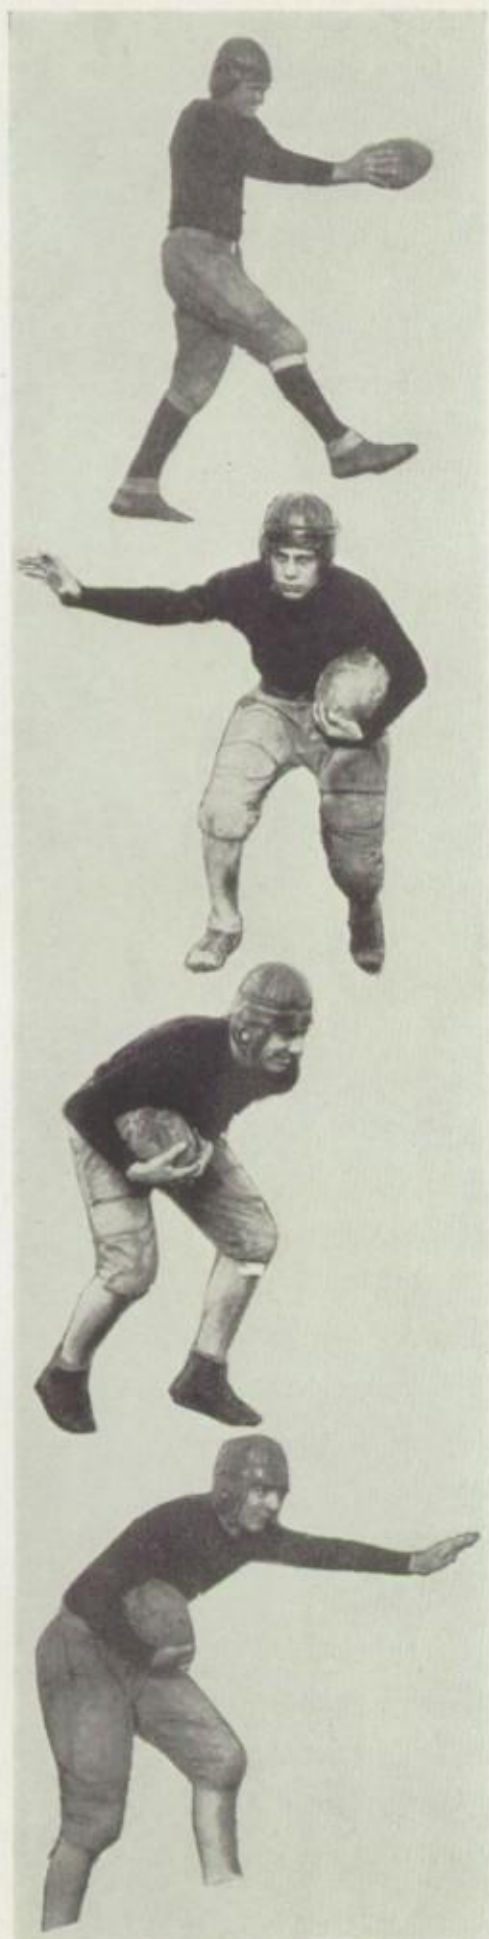

MR. TREECE: Here is a man that can put the spirit in any team. He is a genuine sport and one of the main cogs in P. H. S. athletics. We cannot say too much for his character and personality.

RAY WOLFE, left half-back: Captain Wolfe was a real open field runner and a dangerous man for any opposing team. He was one of the many unlucky players, receiving a broken ankle in a practice game just when he was needed most. This was Ray's last year.

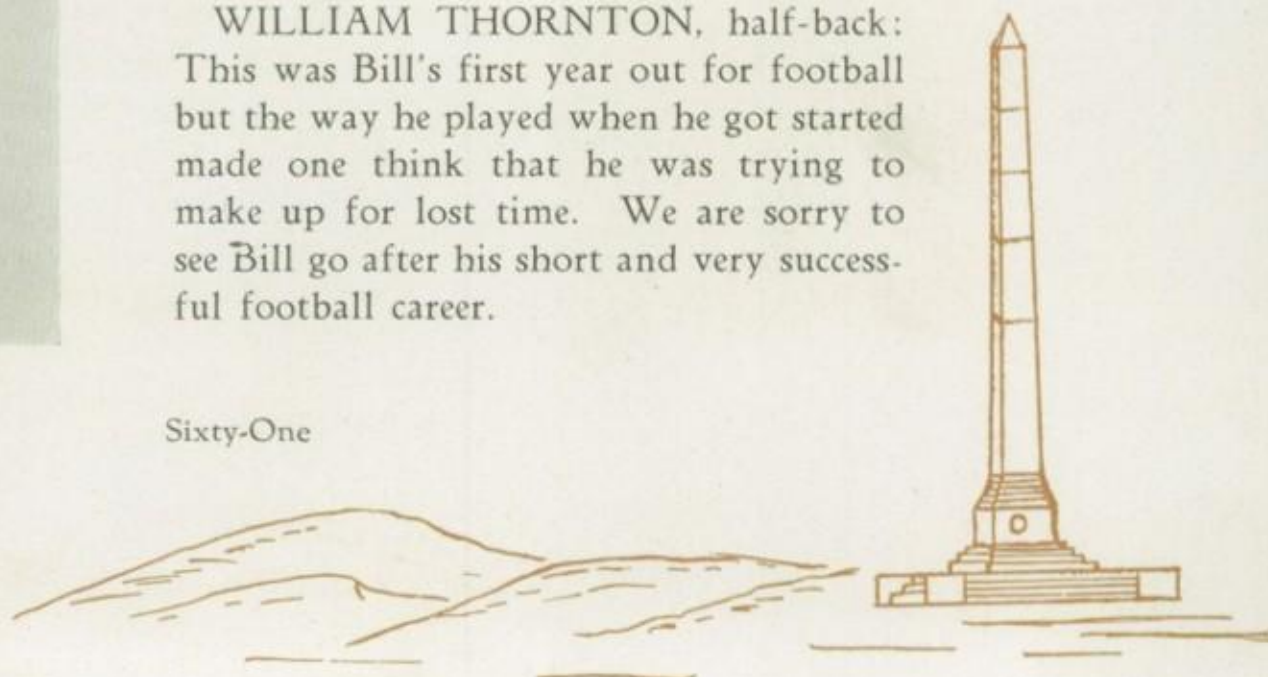

CLAYTON BOSTDORF, quarter-back: Dick surely made a fitting climax of his four years of football. He directed the team in an excellent fashion. In addition to directing the play of the team he also carried a major portion of the attack, being a powerful triple threat player. He was undoubtedly one of the best high school punters in this section of the state. Goodbye, Dick and good luck.

HOWARD HILLABRAND, right half-back: Hildy was one of the green members of the squad. He was a real defensive player and a clever runner. He will return to the old gridiron next fall to help the team on to further victories.

JAMES INMAN, fullback: Jimmie received a broken wrist early in the season, but later showed the old spirit when he was really needed. Jim will make up for lost time the next two years in school. We wish you better luck, Jim.

WILLIAM THORNTON, half-back: This was Bill's first year out for football but the way he played when he got started made one think that he was trying to make up for lost time. We are sorry to see Bill go after his short and very successful football career.

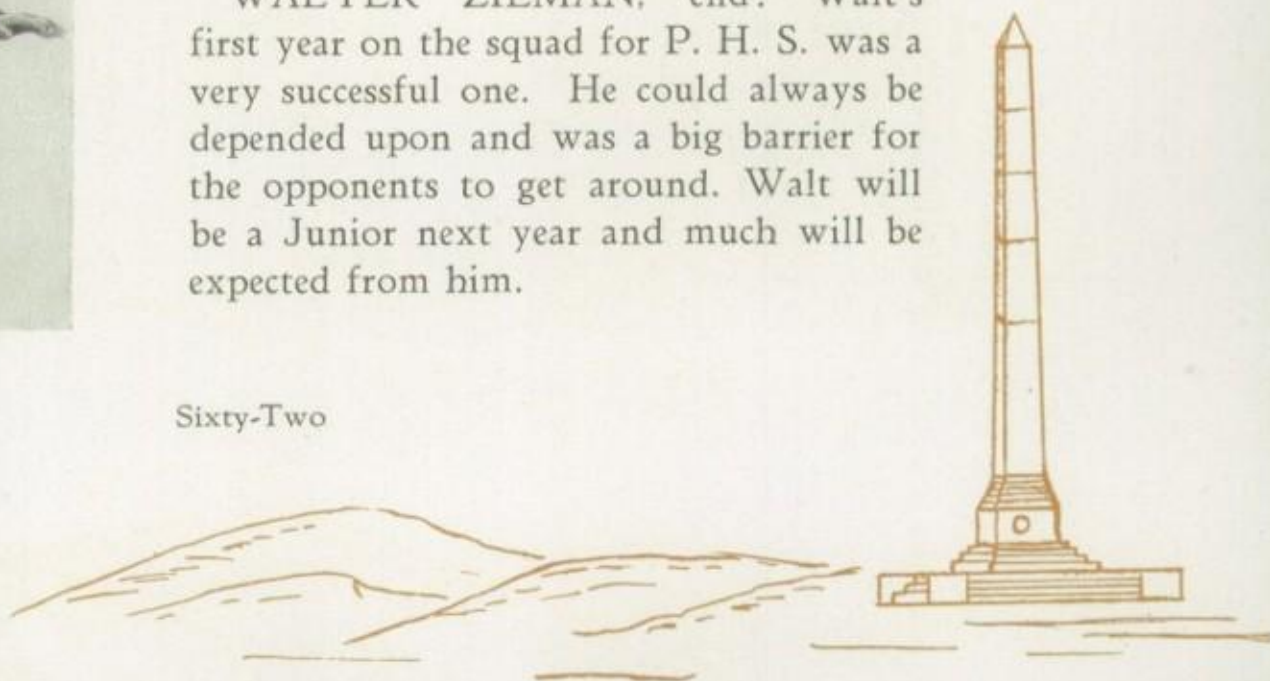

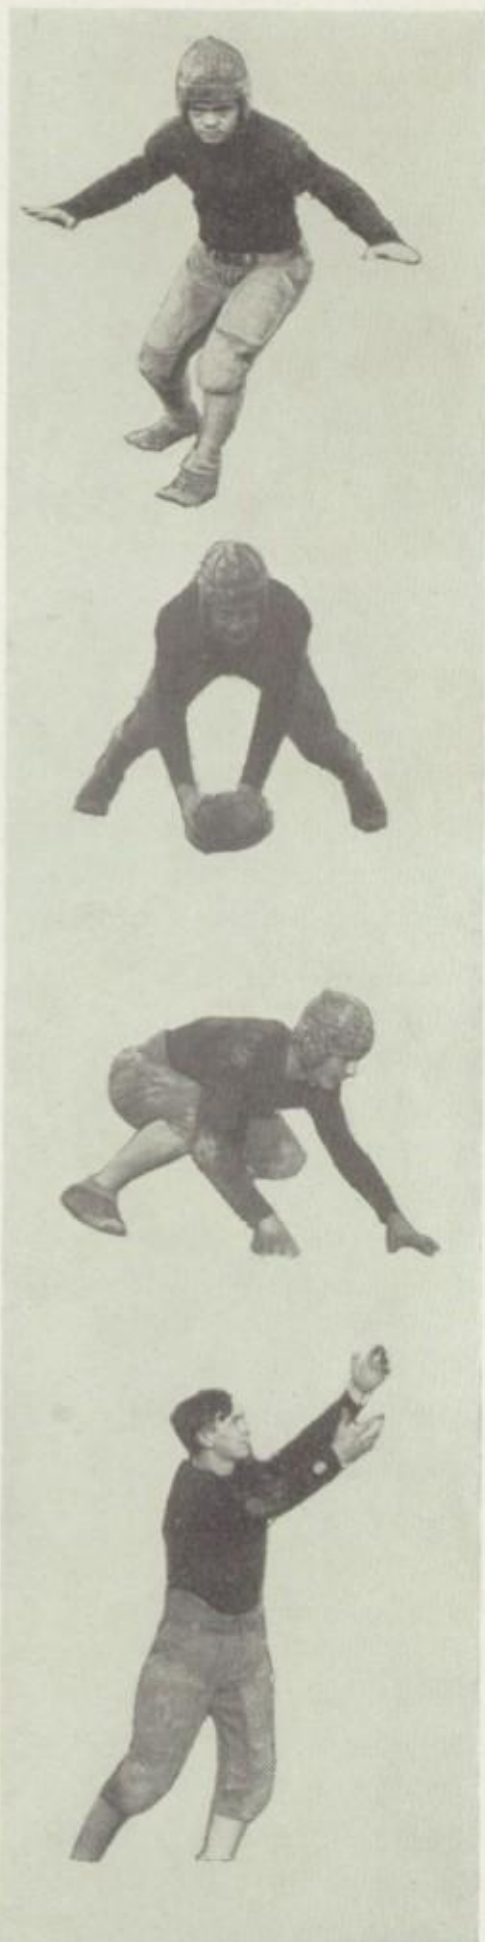

PATRICK DOWLING, tackle: This was Pat's best year on the gridiron. There were very few forward walls that Pat could not break through. He had the honor of being chosen line captain at the close of the season. This was also Pat's last year, and he will be missed when the call for candidate for the team is given next year.

JOHN BENCH, guard: John was the largest man on the team this year and all opponents knew it when they collided. He will be another link for the chain next year.

GILBERT GARBER, tackle: Dub shows how a tackle should go through the line and get his man. He was one of the big factors in the team this year. We wish you luck when you carry the colors of old P. H. S. next year, Dub.

WALTER ZIEMAN, end: Walt's first year on the squad for P. H. S. was a very successful one. He could always be depended upon and was a big barrier for the opponents to get around. Walt will be a Junior next year and much will be expected from him.

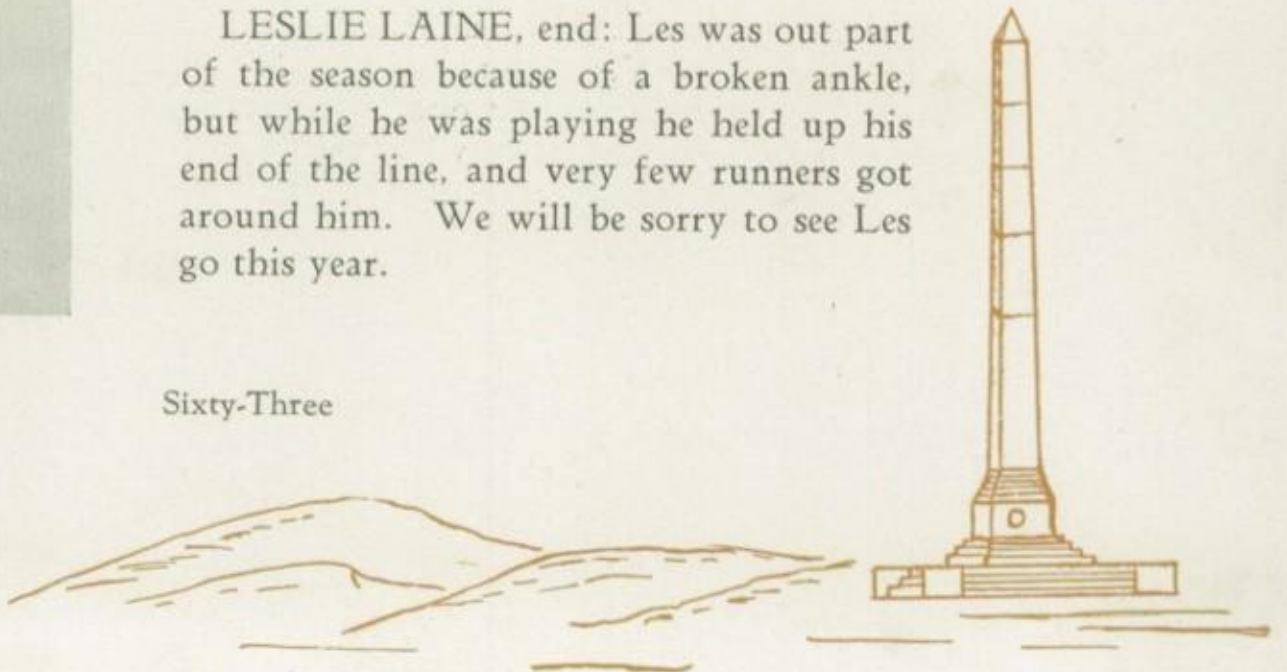

JUNIOR RIGGLE, end: Junior is little but those opposing did not think so when he hit them. Junior has another year in which to play and win for P. H. S.

RONALD LUEBBEN, center: The season of 1929 was Ronny's first year on the varsity team but with the experience gained this year, he should make his next and final year his best.

ELMER WOLF, guard: Although Elmer was new to the game, he showed that he was capable of holding his position on the team. Elmer will be back next year to show us some more good playing.

LESLIE LAINE, end: Les was out part of the season because of a broken ankle, but while he was playing he held up his end of the line, and very few runners got around him. We will be sorry to see Les go this year.

Football Review

When Coach Weinstock issued the call for candidates for the football team, a large number of boys responded. There were a lot of green ones in the bunch, but some of these turned out to be football players. The members of last year's team that were with us again this year were: Clayton Bostdorf, James Inman, Gilbert Garber, John Bench, Patrick Dowling and Raymond Wolf.

Our first game was played with Fostoria on September 21. The P. H. S. team was too inexperienced and light, but even so they were only beaten 27-0.

On September 27 Montpelier, one of the strongest teams in Northwest Ohio, came here for the honor of being the first team to play in Perrysburg's new stadium. It was a gloomy day all around for Perrysburg. We lost 13-0 and Jim Inman broke his arm.

Our next game was here, on October 5, against a strong Whitmer team. Our team was developing fast and held the 1928 Lucas County Champs to the low score of 12-0.

On October 11, we journeyed to Port Clinton. A wet field and some "sharp-shooting," in the way of forward passes, proved to be Perrysburg's Waterloo, for we lost, by what proved to be the worst defeat of the entire season, the score being 38-0.

On October 18, P. H. S. went to Paulding. This game was won by a comfortable margin; the score was 20-6 in favor of P. H. S. The victory was marred somewhat since Les Laine, who was playing good ball at end, broke his ankle.

Our next game was on October 24. North Baltimore came here confident of victory, but went home on the short end of a 27-0 massacre. The game marked an annual event, for Perrysburg, "Dad's Day."

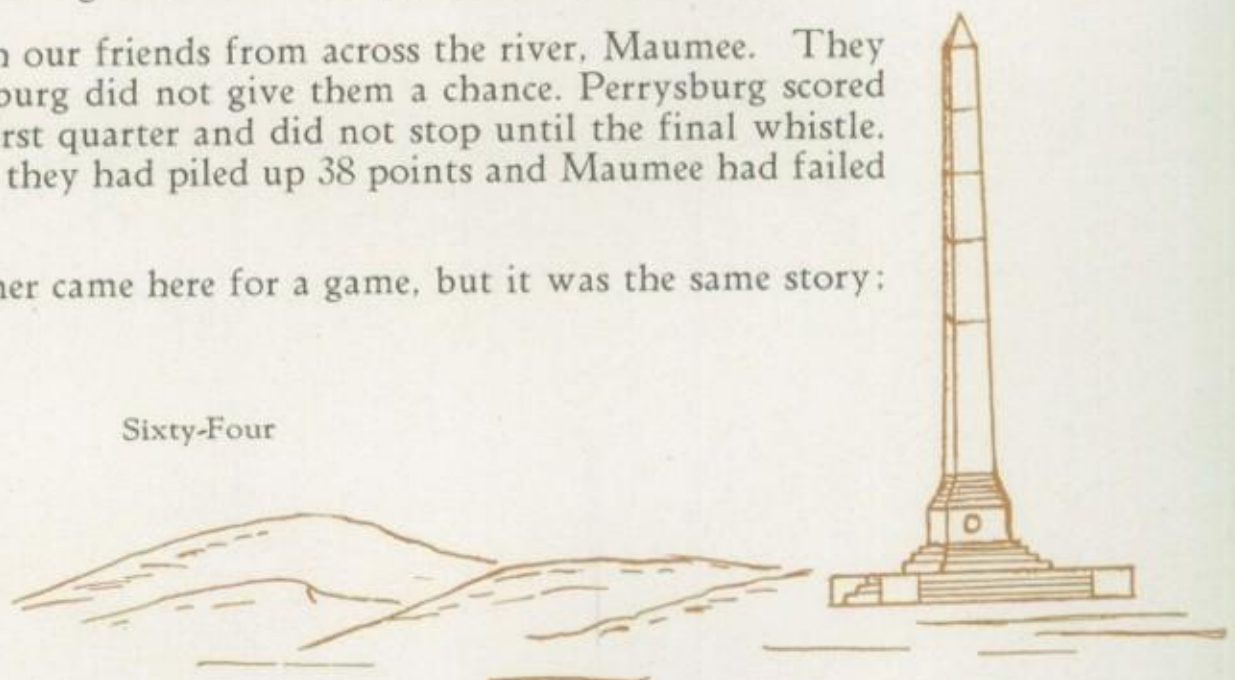

On November 1, Perrysburg went to Swanton. In spite of the fact that the field held much water, P. H. S. went home with another scalp; the score was 13-6.

On November 8, P. H. S. met its old enemy, Rossford, at Rossford. The teams were very evenly matched and battled on equal terms for three quarters of the game, but late in the last quarter, Rossford pushed over a touchdown, which was the only score of the game. Score 6-0 in favor of Rossford.

Our next game was with our friends from across the river, Maumee. They never got started, for Perrysburg did not give them a chance. Perrysburg scored in the early minutes of the first quarter and did not stop until the final whistle. The score-book showed that they had piled up 38 points and Maumee had failed to make a single point.

On November 22, Bradner came here for a game, but it was the same story: P. H. S. won 26-0.

Perrysburg closed the season in a very fitting manner. They challenged Rossford for a return game, to be played on Perrysburg's field on Thanksgiving Day. They were out for revenge for the 6-0 defeat on November 8, and secured it by trouncing Rossford to the tune of 26 to 0.

LESLIE LAINE, guard: Captain Laine will be greatly missed next year. Les proved to be a real guard for few got past him for short shots. Here's to you, Les.

CLAYTON BOSTDORF, center: Last year Dick placed forward but this year he was moved to the center position where he played a very good game. This year Dick was again out of several games with an injured knee. This is Dick's last year and we are sorry to see him go.

WILLIAM THORNTON, center: Bill is another one of the varsity members who will graduate this year. Bill could be depended upon to give his best at all times.

RAYMOND WOLFE, guard: Ray played a good game of ball this year at guard. He was fast but steady and could always be depended upon to sink his "shorts." He is another one that will graduate this year.

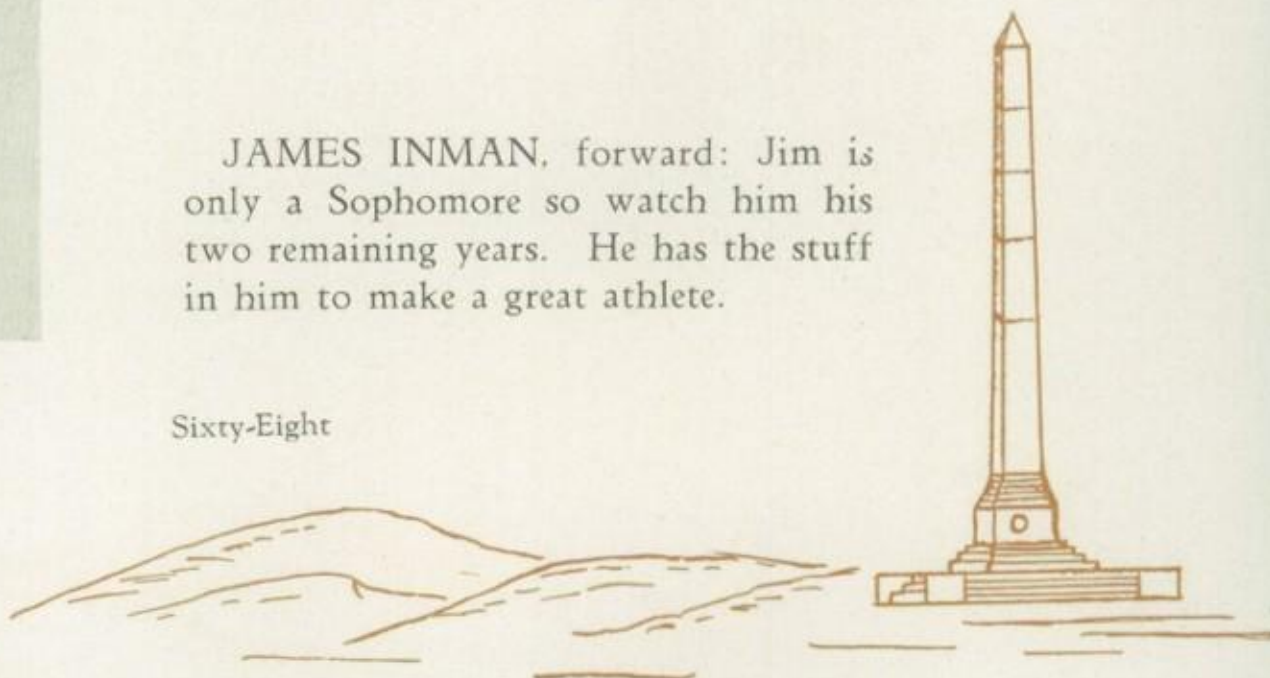

JOHN KRUSE, forward: Johnny surely could drop those long ones through the loops. He was a good defensive player and could hold his own with any opponent. This is John's last year in P. H. S.

CARLETON ROBERTS, forward: Bill broke into the line-up in the latter part of the season and proved a very much needed player. He was small, but clever. Watch this boy on the floor next year.

WILLARD ROBISON, guard: Bud was a new-comer on the team and an excellent guard. Sorry to say he was kept out of the games the latter part of the season due to sickness. Good luck next year, Bud.

JAMES INMAN, forward: Jim is only a Sophomore so watch him his two remaining years. He has the stuff in him to make a great athlete.

Basket-Ball Review

When Coach Weinstock issued the call for basket-ball practice, about forty boys responded. Later the squad was cut to seventeen, making up the squad for '29-'30.

On December 6, the first game was played in our home gym. P. H. S. had been late in getting started but they had little difficulty in beating Tontogany 26-27.

The next game, on December 13, found Haskins the opponent, at Perrysburg. Haskins usually has a strong team and P. H. S. was expecting a battle; they got it and Haskins won 23-6.

On December 18, Swanton came to Perrysburg with high hopes, but when they went home the hopes were lowered somewhat, for P. H. S. won 22-4.

After a vacation of two weeks, on January 3, P. H. S. played the Alumni. The Alumni had not forgotten the basket-ball they knew, for they won the game, the final score stood 18-19 in their favor.

One of the big games of the year was played, on January 11, in the P. H. S. gym, against Rossford High. The game was a fast one. P. H. S. had the advantage of Rossford, in that the game was played on their own floor. Rossford lost. At the end of the game the score board showed that P. H. S. had collected 16 points against 8 for Rossford.

On January 17, P. H. S. met the strong Whitmer team on the latter's floor. P. H. S. lost, the score being 13-35.

On January 24, P. H. S. went to Monclova. The teams were evenly matched, and it was a fast, hard fought game. But Monclova came out on the top. Score 21-17.

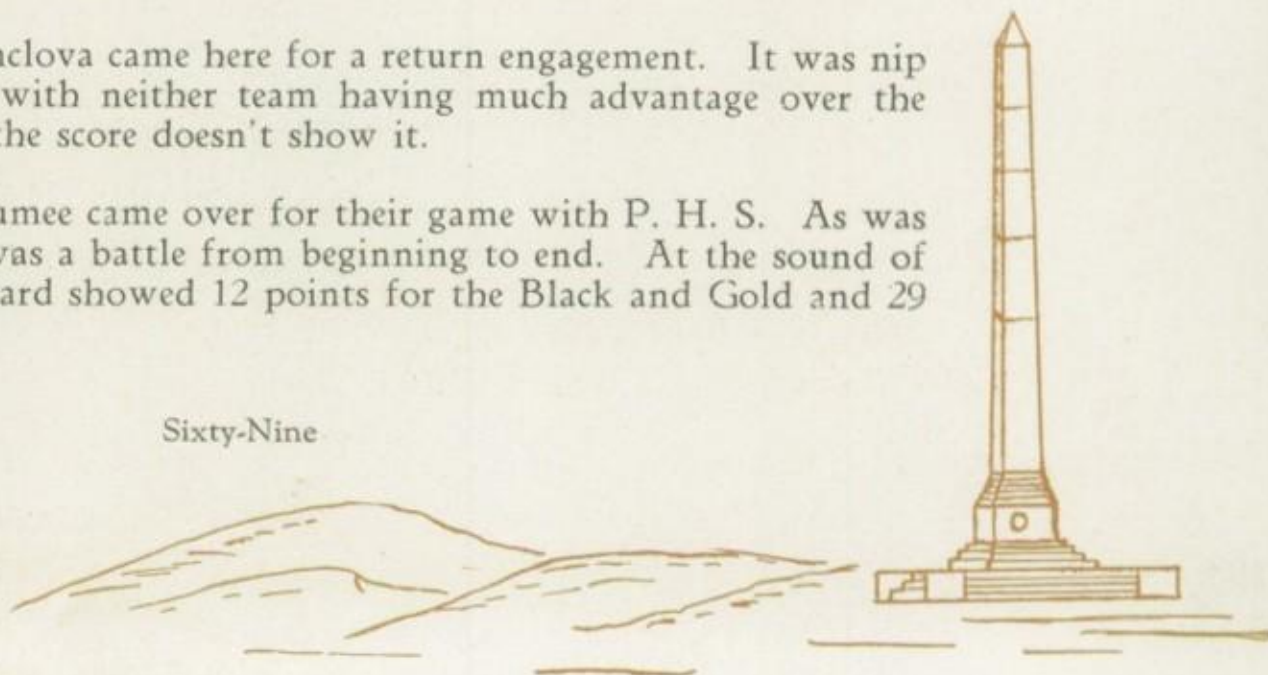

The next game was a return game with Rossford, played on Rossford's floor. Dick Bostdorf was laid up with an injured knee. P. H. S. played hard but the final score showed Rossford had won 34-10.

On February 7, a strong, fast team from Tri-State beat P. H. S. Score 26-17.

On February 12, Monclova came here for a return engagement. It was nip and tuck from the start with neither team having much advantage over the other, although the 21-7 the score doesn't show it.

On February 15, Maumee came over for their game with P. H. S. As was to be expected the game was a battle from beginning to end. At the sound of the final gun the score-board showed 12 points for the Black and Gold and 29 points for Maumee.

At the District Tournament in Rossford, on Saturday, February 22, P. H. S. took their place and the right to go to the County Tournament at Bowling Green. The first game was played against Tontogany and P. H. S. had an easy victory, the score being 28-17.

The next game that P. H. S. had a part in, Rossford furnished the opposition. The two teams had played each other twice before and each had won a game. But this time Rossford beat P. H. S. again. Score, 19-8.

The third game turned out to be another victory for P. H. S. The opponents were Grand Rapids. They were easily subdued. Score, 27-18.

The last game of the season was played at Bowling Green in the County Tournament. Lake, who beat P. H. S. 29-14, went on to the finals.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1930, Perrysburg High School, city of Perrysburg, county of Wood, state of Ohio, being of sane mind and sound memory and knowing that our days are numbered, do leave the following items to undergraduates in the hope that they may serve to help forthcoming graduates attain at least a small degree of the success which has been experienced by the above mentioned class.

I, Cyril Munger, bequeath my skill at breaking in old maids to some needy student without sox appeal.

I, Wally Caldwell, will gladly give up my claims to a certain Rossford Sheba (she's even white), (red hair and all).

I, Grace Thornton, am leaving my aptitude for remembering dates and names (in History of course).

I, Alene Kazmaier, leave my English Lit. ability to any future students of Bobby Barber, and some criticisms of English authors.

I, Dorothy Nietz, am going to give my good History grades and my fondness for Palmer B. Huffman.

I, June Shepherd, donate my ability to come to class late and get away with it.

I, Vernice Keifer, give my drowsiness in the seventh period assembly to next year's users of this assembly.

I, Geraldine Hufford, will my moonbeam eyes and calm disposition to anyone desiring them.

I, Dick Bostdorf, leave a curling iron and a few other indispensable instruments for creating a perfect marcel.

I, Josh Lehman, donate a brand new used French book to anyone desiring it or to Clarence Weinstock as a remembrance of the one who taught the subject), since I have mastered the French language.

I, Reed Berning, give to any needy auto owner a few gears, radiator caps, plug, and a self-commencer which were left over the last time I overhauled my Ford.

I, Arden Snyder, relinquish my teacher's-nightmare handwriting to Buck Hoffman, and an assortment of neckties (slightly worn) for every day in the week, to the highest bidder.

I, Walt Snyder, bequeath my farming talent to future farmers expecting to take a course in Palmer Huffman's Geography.

I, John Kruse, give my slick flat hair and unshaven face to Bill Wellstead.

I, Bill Thornton, am giving a pair of glasses to Ross Crom, so that the next time when out riding with a certain Junior dame, he won't have so much trouble shifting gears.

We, LaVerne Schneider and Les Laine, give our undying love for each other to all new love birds.

I, Doris Zingg, will Dick Bostdorf to anyone who can keep him as long as I did.

I, Margery Schneider, give my typewriting table and a few rules for getting the best of David Scheld.

I, Velma Reitzel, give my dimples and slender proportions to Mildred Finch.

I, Wilma Farris, give my long-windedness and ability to remind the teacher to give assignments when he forgets it.

I, Ruth Neiderhouse, will a perfect statue of Venus (with the arms not broken off) to Ronney Leubben to admire.

I, Helen Troyer, bestow my sonorous talking ability to prospective extemporaneous speakers and magazine salesmen for the Crowell Publishing Co.

I, Harry Fenneberg, am leaving a few hints on frugality. Take long steps to conserve shoe leather and look over the top of your specs to save wear and tear on them.

I, Fern Schaller, am leaving my winning way of appealing to the teacher to any girls expecting to take English Lit.

I, Justin Schwind, will my old pencil stubs to Ethel Baker.

I, Harold Leatherman, leave my ability to get dates to anyone having trouble along that line, and a pair of suspenders to "Pappy" Weinstock.

I, Dwight Hufford, will gladly give up my moustache comb to any one who thinks they might have prospects of a cookie-duster.

I, Marie Eckel, leave my oratorical ability to Francis Byrne.

I, Ruth Cocanour, am giving a piece of resin and a broken violin string to Junior Riggle, and a package of Beechnut (not tobacco) which Joshua Lehman gave me to Mrs. Milburn.

I, Ellen Uthoff, grant my cooking ability to Ruby Farris so Bill Thornton won't have to take her to lunch in a restaurant.

Signed, sealed, declared and published by the Senior Class of 1930 to be our last will and testament, in witness whereof we, the undersigned hereby attach our signatures.

That same week our affirmative team carried off honors when they defeated Gibsonburg's negative team, at Perrysburg.

This last debate was to have brought the district contest to a close, but we soon learned that Perrysburg was tied with Fremont and Rossford for first place. Two more debates were held. Our Affirmative team lost to Fremont's negative team at Perrysburg and our negative team defeated Rossford's affirmative team at Rossford. Fremont finally, won the contest, for this district with Perrysburg taking second honors, a rather remarkable accomplishment considering the experience of the other teams and the size of the schools which they represented. Much of the success was due to the splendid help of our coaches, Mr. Huffman and Mrs. Milburn. The debaters all agree that the experience gained in these contests was well worth the effort.

Next year the work will not be quite so new and we are looking forward to a victory for Perrysburg.

Public speaking teacher—What's the matter with you, John, can't you speak any louder? Be more enthusiastic. Open your mouth and throw yourself into it.

And did you know that two Scotch boys turned in their basketball suits because they couldn't shoot all the free throws?

First Sailor: I have Clara Bow on my mind.

Teacher—Can anyone describe an earthworm?

Wife: You beast!

Husband: You animal trainer!

Unlike other fine arts, printing is seldom if ever the work of an individual; rather, it is the result of the co-ordinated efforts of a group of artists and artisans working in happy accord to produce the ideas and plans of the writer or editor - - - So the fine appearance of this or any other annual is largely due to the care and good judgment of the staff in their selection of photographer, engraver and printer; and while none of us can rightfully claim full credit for the success of this volume, we at Grays are mighty proud of our share of the job.
